Col. Kernan's Book on War

Smash Hitler With Invasion of Italy, U. S. Officer Urges

By AUSTEN LAKE

WAR ANXIOUS Americans, perhaps watching with impatience the scatter-gun pattern of the Allied democracies and wondering when and where the turning point from "defense" to "attack," will begin, should beg, borrow or buy a little book now fresh from the bindery.

It is not an imposing looking tome, merely a matter of 193 pages. Its author is hitherto unknown, a Lt.-Col. W. F. Kernan, U. S. A. But it is a brain-jolting, brilliantly written document which fills one with eagerness to start "dishing it out," instead of "taking it."

Austen Lake

The title of the book is "Defense Will Not Win the War." Remember it.

The Colonel is daring. For as an active officer on line-duty at Camp Bowie, Tex., he is subject to the rigid military snuff-cap of censorship and the same brass hat autocracy which court-martialed Gen. Billy Mitchell for certain aviation critiques after the last war. The Colonel may hear from headquarters about this, for he hits straight from the shoulder.

He finds the "defense complex" a fixation among all democracies. That "defense complex" and an inherent hatred of sweat, tears and bloodshed are the given reasons why Hitler and his war-loving nation swept to steady victory.

That "defense complex," the Colonel asserts, is still the opiate which is paralyzing our all-out effort. Hence the title of his little work "Defense Will Not Win the War."

RECOGNIZED TRUTHS

Many of his premises are axiomatic truths which every American, in his soul consciousness, has been perfectly aware of. Americans, as a mass, merely did not have the organized thought to crystalize their feeling into words.

"Before the outbreak of this war," says the Colonel, "what men of democratic tradition desired more than anything was peace. What they feared more than anything else was war. And this desire and this fear were Hitler's master-key to empire. Building an instrument to take the fullest advantage of it, his armies, committed always to the offensive, went to battle like a bridegroom to his bride."

Most of what Col. Kernan writes is analytical review wherein he uses history as a painter employs the pigments of his craft, with a singular gift for pictorial ideology which makes the book fascinating for its own sake. But above all, he preaches the vital need to take the initiative away from the Axis.

In his later chapters he offers his program for that initiative, a plan which should be read with mental reservations and an eye to practicability. For, though the Colonel, in his two-fisted, vigorous fashion, suggests a victory formula, he does not give the recipe for carrying it out in detail.

ASKS 100 P. C. ATTACK

He asks a 100 per cent attack on Germany this spring while Russia is bleeding the Nazi machine white, an assault through the Nazi back door at Italy.

"There is no doubt," he says, "that we must strike toward Europe, that we must strike soon and hard. And there is no doubt either as to where that first blow should fall. Every signpost to victory points toward Italy . . . for the Italian peninsula, as anyone can see by glance at the map, lies in the strategic center of the World Island which Hitler aspires to dominate."

Without Italy he thinks every hope of Nazi victory in Africa would evaporate; German influence in Vichy France would weaken; Turkey would "come unstuck" and join the Allies; the Dardanelles, as a second backdoor to Berlin, would open.

"For Italy," he says, "is the solar plexus of the Axis, as Germany is its spearhead."

Never mind Dakar. Never mind Martinique and North Africa, he preaches. Strike Italy and strike now.

How much would that cost in manpower and armament, Colonel? His answer is ready!

Two hundred thousand American troops for the initial assault and 200,000 monthly until victory. Three fourths of the U. S. fleet and at least half of the British. Every bombing plane and every transport of both nations. Then "initiative, resourcefulness, the ruthless cutting of red tape and above all—courage."

U. S. FLIERS BOMB SUMATRA INVADERS

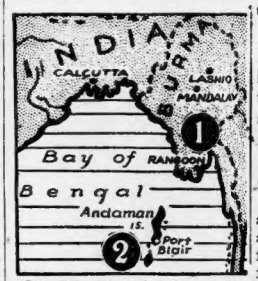
•OFFICIAL NEWS

Bandoeng, N. E. I.

Feb. 27 (AP)

By D. WITT HANCOCK

Allied bombing planes, already successful in smashing one Japanese invasion fleet off Java's eastern end, launched an attack today against a newly-mustered enemy armada off the coast of Sumatra, west of this island fortress.



ON TO INDIA?—Japs with Rangoon (1) practically in their grasp, aim air blows at Andaman islands, (2) Indian possession which occupy strategic position on Indian ocean supply routes.

A squadron of United Nations planes, possibly including American fortress-type bombers, raided a concentration of Japanese shipping in the waters near Bangka Island, just off the Sumatra coast.

They encountered strong anti-aircraft fire, but returned intact and on their homeward flight fought off an attack by 10 enemy fighter planes, one of which the Dutch high command listed as probably destroyed.

This latest blow in an Allied counterattack which now appears to hae shifted most of its weight to Java's west, where the Japanese have driven to the shore of narrow Sunda strait, was carried out simultaneously with a third successive bombing raid on Palembang, enemy-held oil center in south Sumatra.

JAPS EASE UP ATTACK

There the bombers touched off new fires to add to the previous devastation in this area.

(The threat to Java from the west was pointed up by a Tokyo claim that a Dutch naval base on Semangka bay at the southern end of Sumatra had been occupied. The Dutch yesterday acknowledged Japanese forces held Telokbetoeng, 40 miles to the east.)

Japanese air activity slacked off considerably. Only one raid on Java was reported, on the naval base at Soerabaja. There defending fighter planes were said to have driven off a flight of nine bombers before they could do any damage.

The only other enemy operations were machine-gunning attacks on the islands of Soemba and Soembawa which lie far east of Java in the chain extending to Timor.

FIGHT LIKE WILDCATS

"Many thousands" of soldiers from the United States, Britain and Australia are in Java to fight with Dutch forces in defense of this imperiled island stronghold, Lieut.-Gen. Hein Ter Poorten, commander-in-chief of the Netherlands East Indies army, disclosed meanwhile.

He bade them "fight like wildcats and fight like hell" against the enemy ready to spring from stepping-stone islands in almost every direction against Java, the United Nations' last Pacific citadel before Australia, into whose defense the determined Dutch are ready to

JAPS RAID ISLANDS OFF INDIA

New Delhi, India

Feb. 27 (AP)

•OFFICIAL NEWS

Japanese bombers have carried the war to Indian territory for the first time, it was disclosed today, in air raids on the Andaman islands athwart shipping lines of the Bay of Bengal.

The raids Tuesday and Thursday were Japan's farthest blows to the west.

Bombing and machine-gunning of Port Blair, principal town of the islands, which lie 350 miles southwest of Rangoon between lower Burma and the tip of India, intensified the threat to a key section of the empire's lifeline and one of the back door routes for seaborne supplies to Russia and China.

Bases on the Andamans would put the Japanese within close-striking distance of the sea lanes to Calcutta and India's Chittagong district, mentioned as the ports for supplies to Chungking over a new India-north Burma route.

ALLIES HOLD ON BURMA

A Rangoon communique on the defense of Burma reported no change on the land front, but said Allied air forces—British and American volunteer fliers—"have been very active in reconnaissance and bombing raids over enemy-occupied territory."

Of the Andaman raids, the All-India radio said, there were no military casualties but two civilians were killed and five wounded.

The airdrome at Port Blair was described as the principal target.

The report on Burma indicated the outnumbered defense forces still held out along the west bank of the Sittang.

REDS LASH FOE ALONG 1200 MILES

By Associated Press

Russia's armies opened fierce new attacks at both ends of the 1200-mile battlefront today, lashing out from long-besieged Leningrad in the north and on the Crimea peninsula in the south, while Stockholm dispatches reported Soviet cavalrymen had advanced to within 72 miles of the Latvian frontier.

Heavy battles were reported raging around Novgorod, key German base on Lake Ilmen 100 miles southeast of Leningrad.

A bulletin from Red army headquarters said the Russians, apparently striking to divert Nazi reserves from going to the relief of 90,000 Germans reported trapped south of Lake Ilmen, in the Staraya sector, destroyed 11 blockhouses and 30 gun emplacements and dugouts, and killed 2500 Germans in a three-day battle.

Late dispatches from the flaming Staraya Russa battle zone reported the Red armies were breaking down the stand of trapped survivors of the German 16th Army, virtually dooming division after division of the encircled Nazis. These dispatches said the Russian squeeze maneuver had endangered three divisions just brought up from France.

Reuters reported that a Moscow broadcast said a single Soviet regiment on the central front had advanced more than 35 miles in 10 days, recapturing 40 communities and killing more than 4000 Germans.

Hitler's field headquarters acknowledged the Russians were attacking fiercely on the Sevastopol and Kerch fronts, in the Crimea, but asserted German and Rumanian troops had repulsed them with heavy losses.

Stockholm advices said Red cavalry troops had reached the vicinity of Sustjevo, a railway village, in a drive toward the Latvian border—a thrust imperilling the flank of the German armies before Leningrad.

M'ARTHUR ATTACK HURLS JAPS BACK ON WHOLE FRONT

•U. S. OFFICIAL

Washington

Feb. 27 (INS)

With fighting continuing on the Bataan front, the War Department reported that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's surprise counter-attack has pushed the Japanese invaders back distances varying from one-half to five miles along the 13-mile front stretched across the peninsula.

MacArthur's attack, commenced 48 hours ago, apparently has caught a numerically superior enemy off guard and forced them to retreat from advance positions about midway on the embattled peninsula.

In a brief communique, the Army said that "the greatest advance was made on the right of the line north of Pilar."

Pilar is an important coastal point midway down the peninsula on the Manila bay side. This is approximately the position of the lines held by MacArthur against all Japanese attacks during the past month.

The communique disclosed, however, the Japanese are striking back at MacArthur's forces with light air and artillery attacks.

The latest dispatches also stated for some unknown reason the Japs have temporarily ceased their siege of four American-held forts in Manila bay.

'Ford of Germany' Sized in FBI Raid

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27 (AP)—Baron Fritz von Opel, wealthy Palm Beachand Nantucket, Mass., yachtsman and shooting enthusiast, was under arrest by federal Bureau of Investigation agents today, as a "potentially dangerous alien."

BARON FRITZ VON OPEL AND HIS WIFE
Yachtsman Seized as "Dangerous Alien"

At Miami, R. G. Danner, in charge of the FBI's office, declined to identify the baron by name but did say two German aliens and two of Hungarian extraction had been arrested at Palm Beach.

From an unimpeachable law enforcement source, however, it was learned that Baron von Opel was one of the Germans arrested.

But Danner did say a "quantity of guns and ammunition were seized at one of the residences involved in last night's raid."

The guns and ammunition said Danner, came within the provisions of material which the President's proclamation prohibited aliens from having in their possession.

"For this reason, the four persons arrested here will be turned over to the immigration service for a hearing to determine whether they should be interned," he explained.

Von Opel and his father, manufacturers of the Opel car, sometimes were called "the Fords of Germany." Von Opel is the owner of a Massachusetts brewery.

The baron has participated in several skeet tournaments at the Miami Club and also is known in yachting circles as the owner of the Tipsy Porpoise.

The arrest of Von Opel brought to 64 the number of persons arrested in this area by the FBI this week. Earlier arrests included a former German countess and an Italian prince.

In addition to being one of Germany's great auto manufacturers prior to the war, Von Opel invented the rocket-propelled automobile, a rocket plane which travels faster than any other machine made by man, and a rocket speedboat.

His Opel motor works in Germany, founded by his late father, was purchased by General Motors in 1929.

Von Opel has been arrested previously, in April, 1940, when he was making a business trip to the United States. British marines took him off a liner at Gibraltar for "interrogation and examination of his personal documents."

He was later released and allowed to continue to this country.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 27 (AP)—Joan Fontaine and Gary Cooper were given gold statuettes as the outstanding actress and actor of 1941 at the movies' first wartime awards meeting today.

Miss Fontaine won for her portrayal of a woman who lived in constant fear that her husband wouldkill her. The picture was "Suspicion," produced by RKO.

Cooper was acclaimed for his role as the World War's No. 1 hero,

Other male nominees were Cary Grant, Walter Huston and Robert Montgomery.

Twentieth Century-Fox won the best picture award for the first time since the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences began giving Oscards in 1928. The film was "How Green Was My Valley" and it won major honors for two of the men who helped make it great.

JOHN FORD HONORED

John Ford, now a lieutenant-commander in the Navy, was awarded a gold statuette for his directorial work on the film, adapted from Richard Llewellyn's best-selling book. Ford also won best-directing Oscars in 1935 and 1940 for "The Informer" and "Grapes of Wrath."

Donald Crisp's work in "How Green Was My Valley" won him the award for the year's best bale supporting sole.

I. J. FOX EMPLOYES PLEDGE $24,000 OUT OF PAY ENVELOPES

$1,000,000 PLEDGED TO FUND—The New England Division, American Jewish Congress, has pledged $1,000,000 to the Buy Bonds for Bombers fund. Shown are (l. to r.) Ellis J. Swartz, executive director; Daniel J. Doherty, State Administrator, Defense Savings Staff; Rabbi Joseph S. Shubow, president, and Samuel Kalesky, life honorary president.

BUY BONDS FOR MASSACHUSETTS BOMBERS! Every penny or dollar used for BONDS brings nearer the day AMERICA will launch the great OFFENSIVE President Roosevelt promised in his Washington's Birthday speech.

With the BUY BONDS FOR BOMBERS campaign total nearing the TEN MILLION dollar mark, a pledge to purchase $24,000 in BONDS was received today from David Lilienthal, vice president of I. J. Fox, writing in behalf of the company's Boston store employes.

"America's largest furrier is doing its part in furthering the interest of its employes to buy BONDS," wrote Mr. Lilienthal.

"The employes of our Boston store have pledged, out of their pay envelopes, the equivalent of approximately $12,000 worth of BONDS this year.

"We have assurances from many of our employes that these amounts will be increased and it is likely that our entire pledge WILL BE DOUBLED before the year is over."

This eagerness on the part of I. J. Fox employes to BUY BONDS FOR MASSACHUSETTS BOMBERS is just one more example of the determination of Americans everywhere to SWEEP THE AXIS INTO DEFEAT.

U. S. TANKER IN FLAMES OFF JERSEY

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Feb. 27 (INS)—An American tanker burst into flames, five miles off Asbury Park early today. Explosions accompanied the flames.

Whether the ship had been set afire by enemy action or was victim of a marine accident could not be determined.

Ten Coast Guard vessels were dispatched to the scene when the fire first was reported. No survivors had come ashore by daylight, as far as could be learned.

The ship caught fire at almost the same spot where the ill-fated Morro Castle burned to the waterline in 1934 with a loss of 134 lives.

Sergt. William Briden of the Belmar, N. J., police reported the fire first. He was on beach patrol when he said "a big wall of fire shot about 200 feet in the air." He said there were several explosions.

As the flames raged hundreds of persons easily identified the stricken ship as a tanker.

Doctors' Puzzle: A Cut And 2 Twins or Siamese?

NEW YORK, Feb. 27. (AP)—Science sought an answer today to the question whether two newborn girl babies must spend their lives joined together face to face or whether the knife could rectify nature's phenomenon.

Although an operation to separate teh Siamese twins is contemplated, Dr. Peter Timpone, who delivered them yesterday to Mrs. Jessie Picciotto, 25, said 10 days would be needed for X-rays and other examinations to determine how closely their organs and circulatory systems were connected.

Should the connection, which is from a point just below the chest to about an inch below the navel—a distance of about three inches—be found superficial and the bloodstreams separate, physicians said the chance for a successful operation would be good.

At first the information she had borne Siamese twins was withheld from the young mothers, whose only other child, also a girl, died soon after birth last year, but at her insistence on learning their welfare she was told of it.

Nurses in St. Vincent's Hospital, Staten Island, where the twins were born, said Mrs. Picciotto's astonishmen quickly gave way to reconciliation.

The father, Carmine, 29-year-old butcher, of Brighton, Staten Island, said the children were welcome but that he would have been easier in his mind had they come singly.

The twins, christened Joan and Vincenza, weighed nine pounds, four ounces together.

Retail Prices Higher in U. S.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—The spectre of rising retail prices poked its nose through trade figures this week.

Dollar sales at leading centers of distribution averaged 14 to 20 per cent above last year for the country as a whole, Dun Bradstreet reported. And, the credit agency added:

"In unit volume retail trade for the week was close to last year's levels. An increase in Dollar sales estimated at 14 to 20 per cent over a year ago could be traced largely to the rise in prices."

Dollar sales in New England topped last year by 15 to 20 per cent, the East 17 to 21, Middle-West 13 to 18, South 12 to 20, Southwest 16 to 24, Northwest 15 to 19, and Pacific Coast 16 to 22.

LAUNCH TWO PATROL BOATS AT NEPONSET

With workmen pausing just long enough to shout a cheer, two fast Navy patrol boats slid down the former yacht-building ways of the Lawley Shipyards in Neponset today.

While Navy planes roared overhead, hundreds joined in the cheering as the two miniature destroyers slid smoothly into the water—10 minutes apart—and automatically, as the last left the ways, the keels of two more swung into place.

Twelve-year-old Fredericka E. Castle, grand-daughter of one of the yard's master fitters and a niece of the yard's steel superintendent, was sponsor of the first of the pair.

The other was sponsored by Mrs. Edward Fleming of Weymouth, wife of the Navy's resident inspector of shipbuilding at the yard.

Converted to war production almost overnight, the Lawley yards formerly built yachts that competed for the most-prized of all yachting trophies, the America Cup. The naval craft now being produced combine speed with hitting power and are closely guarded Navy secrets.

The two launched today were completed far ahead of schedule.

Main speaker was Thomas H. Buckley, assistant internal revenue collector, who later heard the workmen pledge purchases of $150,000 worth of defense bonds.

DONALD F. MASON
Wife Brags for '4-S' Hero

Wife Lauds 'Saw Sub, Sank Same' Hero

PROVIDENCE, Feb. 27—Her husband may dismiss his accomplishments with the now historic "sighted sub, sank same," but red-haired Mrs. Anna Maria Mason isn't going to let him duck into obscurity that easily.

At her home in a defense project here, the 27-year-old Colfax, Wash., wife admitted that Donald Francis Mason, aviation machinist's mate, "doesn't do any bragging. I'm the one who has to do it for him."

Since the laconic "4 S" message from a plane on its destruction of an enemy submarine in the Atlantic came through, the identity of the airman was a secret until revealed by Navy Secretary Frank Knox.

With her four-year-old daughter, Florence, at her side, the young wife and mother displayed typical courage of Navy women.

"I'd like to have him home," she said. "But I am tickled to death he is where he is if he can keep it up like that.

"A lot of hodge-podge about individual accomplishments isn't going to win this war, by golly."

She said the terse message from her modest husband was "very characteristic," and added that "his mother will be thrilled."

GASOLINE RATIONING SEEN IN TANKER SHIFT TO FUEL OIL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—The petroleum co-ordination office reported today supplies of oil for heating homes in the East were "dangerously low" and called for use of all suitable tanker ships to haul the needed oil, as well as increased movement of domestic heating oil eastward by rail.

Tankers now hauling gasoline from Gulf ports to the Eastern seaboard should be used to haul fuel oil if they are suitable, Ralph K. Davies, deputy petroleum coordinator advised the 15 companies supplying East coast markets.

The East last week was placed under a rigid system of curtailed heating oil deliveries, with no domestic or industrial user allowed to get more fuel while their tanks are more than one-fifth full.

Over 1,250,000 dwellings in the 17 Eastern states and the District of Columbia use oil for heating.

Davies said tankers transferred from the gasoline to the domestic heating oil service should be kept in it until the home heating supply was assured for the remaining approximately five weeks of the season.

Davies gave no estimate of the probable effect on the East's gasoline supplies by diversion of ships and rail cars.

A petroleum industry source, however, expressed the opinion rationing of gasoline would be necessary, and he said should such restrictive measures be adopted he believed their application would be on a nation-wide basis.

Workmen Seek Way To Raise Normandie

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—Workmen scrambled today over the capsized liner Normandie at her Hudson river pier, surveying damage done to the 83,423-ton ship when she burned Feb. 9 and trying to determine whether the ship can be raised.

Naval officers said it would take weks before a decision could be made on how to right the ship—if it can be done.

Stray Pup Doubles For Missing Chubby

In the Dorchester home of little Jimmy Shea today there was joy and gladness—because even a borrowed dog is better than none at all.

Chubby is still lost, but the police of Fields Corner station have been doing their best to find him for Jimmy and his brother and sister. That's why Jimmy now has the loan of a dog.

But perhaps it is best to start at the beginning, and the beginning was when Jimmy wrote to the editor of the Boston Evening American about his unhappiness over Chubby.

Jimmy is eight and a half. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shea of 42 Clarkson st., in the Meeting House Hill section. His brother is Allen, five, and their sister is Anna, seven.

For more than five weeks Jimmy had been sick. Then he wrote to this newspaper:

"Can you please help me find my dog? His name is Chubby and he is a mongrel. He was with me all the time I was sick, and now I miss him very much. He was lost at my own street and the corner of Quincy st.

"He is about five months old, he has a white stripe on his belly and white between his eyes, and he is big for his age. Thank you very much."

Well, the story was printed and police of Jimmy's division got busy right away. Every stray dog they found they brought to the station for possible identification. Finally a cute pup which seemingly answered the description closely was found and Sergt. Patrick Connelly assigned Patrolman Harold Brickley to take the dog to Jimmy's house.

A boy knows his own pup, however. Jimmy's face fell. He said sadly:

"No, that isn't my Chubby. But I wish he was mine. He's awfully cute."

The policeman rubbed his chin thoughtfully. He grinned. He said:

"Well, now, I think it would be fine if you kept him sort of as a borrowed dog until Chubby is found. And if Chubby isn't found and this here pup isn't claimed you can have him for your very own."

So that's how it stands now at the Shea home, with Jimmy and Anna and Allen all overjoyed.

Wounded Boy Held in Theft

Court was held in Central Hospital, Somerville, today, where an 18-year-old youth, wounded in the leg by a police bullet, was held in $10,000 bail on charges of larceny of two automobiles.

Judge Gadsby, Assistant Court Clerk John L. S. Connolly and Police Officer Smith went to the hospital to arraign John Hamilton of Chelsea st., Charlestown, shot when he tried to flee police at Franklin ave., East Somerville.

William J. Prince, 21, of Main st., Charlestown, who surrendered rather than face the police fusillade was arraigned before Judge Gadsby in Somerville court, and he, too, was held in $10,000 bail.

Both Hamilton and Prince pleaded not guilty.

A tip from a woman that youths were stripping cars in a vacant lot led to their arrest.

NAZIS IN PARIS HINT VICHY, U. S. TO BREAK

LONDON, Feb. 27 (AP)—The German-controlled Paris radio said today "it has been confirmed" that Admiral William D. Leahy, United States ambassador in Vichy, has demanded that all movements of the French fleet receive prior authorization from the United States.

The Vichy government, the radio added, has rejected "this intolerable demand."

The radio said "it is rumored" in American circles in Vichy that in protest against the Vichy government's refusal to his suggestion that Admiral Leahy will leave his post and United States representation will be left to S. Pinkney Tuck, counselor of embassy.

The French government radio in Vichy shortly afterward was heard in London reporting that Vice-Premier Jean Darlan received Admiral Leahy this morning.

U. S. Brands Vichy Break Tale Nazi Lie

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—State Department officials today categorically denied a report broadcast by the German-controlled Paris radio that United States Ambassador William D. Leahy was being recalled from Vichy.

There is no truth, they said, in the radio's report that Leahy had demanded the French give prior notification to the United States of any movements in the French flet, that the French rejected this demand or that the United States therefore was recalling Leahy.

President Roosevelt was advised of the report at his press conference and when he was told the source was the German-controlled radio ,he replied, there is the answer.

F. D. RAPS RIDERS ON BILLS THAT CANNOT BE VETOED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt condemned today, as a very reprehensible method of legislating, what he called the attaching of riders that ought to be vetoed to measures which cannot be vetoed.

The Chief Executive told a press conference that since 1913 he had had the idea it was not quite fair to Congress or the country to attach riders to appropriation measures when the riders were not germane.

His remarks arose from the plan of the Senate farm bloc to tack on to a pending $32,762,737,900 war appropriation bill an amendment designed to prevent sales of government-held farm products below full parity prices.

The Senate already had approved legislation which included this prohibition, but the farm bloc took steps to clinch its victory by putting substantially the same provisions into the huge war appropriation so the danger of a presidential veto would be lessened.

F.D. Against Suspending 40-Hr. Law

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—Advocates of a wartime suspension of the 40-hour week and overtime bonuses ran into the opposition of the Roosevelt administration leadership today, but clung to their claims that a majority of the House would vote prompt support of suspension.

Administration leaders on Capitol Hill said the outcome depended on how the Republicans lined up on the proposal to make the suspension a part of a pending war powers bill.

Downtown, President Roosevelt spoke disapprovingly of the idea of attaching what he called riders that ought to be vetoed to measures which cannot be vetoed.

It was made plain the administration disapproved the amendment to abandon the 40-hour week chiefly because it felt it would mean a reduction of the sum in many pay envelopes.

Replying to questions, Mr. Roosevelt said he had formulated no policy as yet on mobilization of man-power for war production and did not know when he would.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (INS)—Following is the text of the War Department's 126th communique:

"PHILIPPINE THEATER — Fighting continues on the Bataan front with light forces engaged on both sides.

"Gen. MacArthur's troops are holding advance positions which represent gains of from one to eight kilometers along the entire front during the past 48 hours.

The greatest advance was made on the right of the line north of Pilar.

"Our troops are being subjected to a relatively light enemy air and artillery attack.

"There has been no firing on our fortifications from enemy artillery positions on the Cavite shore for several days.

"There is nothing to report from other areas."

Woman and Doctor Held In Surgery Case; 2 Free

After she persistently refused to testify in Quincy court against three men accused of complicity in an illegal operation on her, Miss Dorothy Davenport, 30-year-old brunette of Vinal st., Brighton, today was held in $2500 as a material witness.

Judge Kenneth L. Nash ordered Dr. Earl G. Hersey of Quincy and Milton held in $3500 for trial in superior court on a charge of illegal surgery upon Miss Davenport.

Capt. James Bethel of the U. S. Army and Metropolitan District Policeman Charles K. Williams were freed of charges of being accessories.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. George W. Arbuckle, asking Judge Nash that the woman be held, said:

"I haven't any assurance she will be on hand if she is allowed to go free."

Expected to be the chief witness against Dr. Hersey, the modishly-dressed woman answered all questions with the statement:

"I refuse to answer on the grounds it will incriminate me."

She refused to identify any of the defendants and declined to answer when asked if she made a statement to Sergt. Joseph Fallon of the Boston homicide squad on Dec. 23 at Lying-in Hospital, Boston.

Despite defense objections, Arbuckle read parts of Fallon's report of a conversation he said he had with the girl.

Brecht said the 120 workers who walked out in protest over a "foreman's abusive conduct" had not altered their "objections to their foreman's attitude, but are of the opinion it is their duty as good Americans to return to work immediately."

"The welders unanimously voted to purchase one defense bond apiece and demanded the foreman should purchase five," Brecht added.

Learn Posture Rules, Junior Army Told

Below is the fourth lesson on Physical Fitness especially prepared for Junior Army members by Joe McKenney, associate director, Physical Education, Boston public schools.

By JOE McKENNEY
LESSON FOUR

To acquire and develop a postural sense one should learn and recite daily the correct standing position.

1—Feet parallel. 2—Weight forward. 3—Waist flat. 4—Chest up and forward. 5—Chin in. 6—Head high.

The following exercises are the most important of all posture exercises and should be repeated often. In the previous lesson instructions were given on the contraction and relaxation of the abdominal muscles in a lying position. This exercise may be done from a standing and sitting position also.

1—Contraction and relaxation of the abdominal muscles from a standing position.

Stand with back against the wall, keeping the heels three to four inches away. Let the buttocks, shoulders and head touch the wall. Then flatten the lower back against the wall by contracting the abdominal muscles—called A position. Relax muscles—called D position. Repeat this exercise three to six times.

SIT ERECT

2—Contraction and relaxation of abdominal muscles in a sitting position.

Sit erect, leaning against the chair back. Place hands over the waist line. Breathe in and push up and in with the hands to make the waist line flat—A position. Exhale and release the hands to let waist line relax slightly—D position. Repeat three to six times.

Do not lift your shoulders. End the exercise in the A position. This exercise may be done while sitting cross-legged on the floor also.

Other corrective exercises that may be done from a sitting position are as follows:

BUDDHA EXERCISES

1—While sitting in a chair clasp your hands on top of your head, with your elbows back, and body erect. Stretch upward, pushing head against the clasped hands which you pull downward while counting slowly 1-2-3-4. Relax—repeat three to six times.

(2) Sit on the floor and cross legs. Pull feet in under knees. Keep body erect. Extend arms forward at shoulder height, palms upward, move arms sideways with some force, keeping head up, chin in and chest well forward. Return arms gently. Do eight to sixteen counts.

(3) While still in cross-legged position, clasp hands on top of your head, elbows back and body erect. Stretch upward, pushing head against clasped hands, which pull downward while you count slowly 1—2—3—4. Relax. Repeat four to six times.

This is known as a "Buddha" exercise and is excellent for developing the chest and shoulders.

Correct Standing Position — Incorrect Standing Position

LOS ANGELES SKY MYSTERY UNSOLVED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—Officials here today were silent on the divergent stories of War Secretary Henry Stimson and Navy Secretary Frank Knox on the Los Angeles air raid scare, but Civil Aeronautics Authority experts inclined to discount the Stimson version.

The CAA officials stressed the strict regulations covering airplanes and air fields and said Stimson's story of 15 planes piloted by enemy agents circling over the California city was "quite remarkable."

Knox in an earlier statement dismissed the Tuesday alarm as a "false alarm" and told newsmen no planes were sighted.

Every airship outside Army or Navy control must be registered with the CAA and a license obtained, officials pointed out in refutation of Stimson's claim the raid was caused by unregistered planes operating from secret bases on the American continent.

Concerning the possibility the planes reported by Stimson operated from Mexican bases, CAA spokesmen said United States and Mexico are "in this war together" and any such mass maneuver from secret Mexican bases would have been reported to American authorities.

MOTHER, SON AND POLICE IN STRIKE FIGHT

An 18-year-old Somerville youth and his mother were arrested today in the second outbreak of violence during the four-day strike of rainwear workers at the Cosmopolitan Garment Co. plant, Ames st., Cambridge.

Anthony Mangiacotti of 7 Bolton st., Somerville, was charged with assault with intent to kill, driving so as to endanger, assault and battery on a police officer and wilful destruction of property, after an altercation with Police Sergt. Daniel Brennan and Patrolman John Trant.

His mother, Mrs. Doris Mangiacotti, 44, a picket, faced a charge of assault and battery on a girl who tried to work in the struck plant.

According to police, the son kicked Sergt. Brennan in the stomach when he approached a car where Mrs. Mangiacotti was sitting near the factory. The policeman was attempting to serve an assault and battery warrant.

Trant, who saw the incident, ran toward the car and, police claimed, Mangiacotti started the auto and swerved it toward Trant in an apparent attempt to run him down. The car narrowly missed Brennan who was lying in the street, police said.

The officer chased the Mangiacotti car with a cruiser car and cut in front of the escaping machine about 300 feet from the alleged assault on Brennan. Police claimed Mangiacotti drove his auto into the police car.

Pickets surrounded the two officers when they took the mother and son to a nearby police box to await the patrol wagon. Police said threats were shouted by strikers.

Order was restored by the large detail of police on duty since the strike began Tuesday.

seek the co-operation of their employes to BUY BONDS FOR BOMBERS by permitting their employers to deduct a specific amount from their pay envelopes each and every week."

He extended to the Boston Record-American and Sunday Advertiser congratulations "on your worthy campaign to BUY BONDS FOR BOMBERS."

Day after day, more business firms are inaugurating the voluntary payroll deduction plan. EVERY industry, store, office and plant should join in this mighty effort.

Ask your employer about it TODAY. Get your fellow-workers to "sign up" and BUY BONDS FOR BOMBERS on the easy payment plan.

YOU SET FIGURE

There's no special amount deducted from your salary. You set the figure according to what you can afford. It can be 50 cents or 50 dollars. You decide that and when there's enough to your credit you BUY A BOND FOR MASSACHUSETTS BOMBERS.

Another great organization, the American Jewish Congress, New England Division, today pledged $1,000,000 to the drive to BUY BOMBERS. Following closely behind the million-dollar promise of the State Council, Knights of Columbus, the pledge gave tremendous impetus to the campaign being conducted by the Record-American and Sunday Advertiser.

"Our organization will be delighted to cooperate in every way as we have pledged our cooperation in every way possible in behalf of the present war effort," Rabbi Joseph S. Shubow wrote in announcing the promise to BUY BONDS FOR MASSACHUSETTS BOMBERS.

"I hope that your very laudable and truly patriotic effort will meet with the greatest success, and I pray that this war for justice, freedom and equality will come to a speedy end, with victory crowning the efforts of America and her Allies."

Today's reports bring the campaign total to $9,363,156. That's not enough.

WHAT IS ENOUGH?

Lieut.-Gen. William S. Knudsen, war production genius, said recently:

"We won't have enough until we have too much of everything."

That's especially true of BOMBERS. They are VITAL to VICTORY. We must have BOMBERS, BOMBERS and MORE BOMBERS.

The surest way to get them is BUY BONDS and STAMPS. You can buy BONDS at any bank or post office. Your corner grocery . . . the place where you buy your cigarettes . . . department stores, and innumerable other business places, will sell you STAMPS.

The United Nations are committed to VICTORY. We MUST have the implements to carry out that pledge.

BOMBERS WILL DO IT! BONDS WILL BUY BOMBERS!

Let's carry the war into the enemy's FRONT YARD as our President urges. Let's give the armed forces the TOOLS to work with . . . BUY BONDS and STAMPS FOR BOMBERS.

BOMBERS FOR VICTORY.

Girl Gives Clue to Thieves Who Carried Off Defense Bonds in 300-Pound Safe

In an effort to balk thieves who carried a safe containing $4400 in national Defense Bonds from a Chambers st. dental office, Boston police today asked Washington authorities to secure the serial numbers of the stolen bonds, in order to prevent their being converted into cash.

The safe was carried from the office of Dr. Joseph Weener only 100 yards from the Joy st. police station during the early morning hours and was abandoned a few hours later in Holbrook with its door battered open and the contents gone.

In the safe also was some $80 in dentist's gold.

A Beat clue yet turned up came from a girl resident of Chambers st., whose identity is being withheld. She told detectives of seeing the safe being carried from the building by several men and she furnished a description of them.

Police believe the yeggs entered the building by climbing through a transom, opening the outside door, then forcing an inner door to the offices. The safe weighed about 300 pounds.

nia State Guard, also was in uniform.

Walt Disney, as usual, carried off special honors, for "Fantasia" and "Dumbo" and was given the Irving Thalberg memorial trophy for most consistently high production achievement.

The meeting, starting with a banquet, drew 1600 persons, 300 more than ever turned out before.

USUAL GLAMOUR LACKING

The dinner, once called off because of the war, but reinstated, lacked most of its usual glamour and fanfare. There were no searchlights outside. Men wore business suits or uniforms—many Army officers were guests. Feminine stars yielded little to the informality, however. They appeared in evening dress, adorned with furs, jewels, flowers.

Jack Benny

John Ford

Willkie departed from a prepared address to assert:

"If and when an air raid of any proportions comes to Los Angeles, there will be no debate about it."

He arrived in the midst of a controversy over Los Angeles' blackout-anti-aircraft fire at still unidentified planes yesterday morning.

Willkie praised the industry as being "among the first to appreciate fully true American (anti-Axis) sentiment and to offer pictures reflecting that sentiment and disclosing the vicious character of Nazi plotting and violence."

Turning to the war, he declared:

"We will not win this war on the defensive. We want our Navy seeking out the enemy, not hanging on our shores for fear the enemy will seek us out—as some of our distinguished senators have suggested.

"We want our armies penetrating every active front. We want our fighting planes leading our bombers to their goal. It sickens me to think of America in terms of defense.

"x x x if the victories of totalitarianism have taught us anything, it is that those who win strike first.

"Let's begin to strike! Let's begin to win!"

OTHER AWARDS

Among other awards, announced before a record crowd that included more stars, academy officials said, than any former academy dinner, included:

Best song: plaques to Jerome Kern for the music and Oscar Hammerstein II for the lyrics of "The Last Time I Saw Paris" from "Lady Be Good," M.G.M.

Best scoring of musical picture, plaques to Frank Churchill and Oliver Wallace for Walt Disney's "Dumbo."

Special awards were presented to Walt Disney, William Garrity, John N. A. Hawkins and the RCA Manufacturing Co. for the advancement of the use of sound in "Fantasia."

Leopold Stokowski and associates were given a special award for creation of a new form of visualized music in "Fantasia."

John Grierson, film commissioner of Canada, presented awards for documentary films to Rey Scott for "Kukan," film record of China's struggle, and to the British ministry of information for "its vivid and dramatic presentation of the heroism of the RAF" for the documentary film "Target for Tonight."

This was the first time awards had been made for documentary films.

Even Babies Follow Rule of Threes In This Blackout

ATLANTA, Feb. 27 (AP)—Happening in threes during Atlanta's first test blackout last night, city hospitals reported:

Three babies born just before the "alert" sounded.

Three more arrivals during the 20-minute blackout.

Police reported—three arrests for blackout violations.

All-Night Firing At Edwards

As a climax to intensive Sixth Army Corps range examinations during the past two weeks, field artillery battalions of the Yankee Division will hold all-night firing tests at the Camp Edwards range tonight.

Men worked busily preparing equipment and ammunition for their strenuous workout, which will be conducted in three operations.

YD headquarters at Edwards announced three lieutenants have been named for a 10-week course in aircraft observing at Brooks Field, Texas. They are Lieuts. Robert Craig of York Village, Me.; Richard P. Gigger, Barrington, R. I., and Michael Gnatowski of Staffordville, Ct.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—A possible shortage confronted the public today as the Army and Navy announced the letting of contracts for 1,000,000 duck feather pillows and the Navy one for 650,000 with chicken feathers.

To the consumer it meant a future with a harder pillow. To the poulty man, it spelled a demand for more than 39,000,000 chicks and ducks. As for the New York retailers, they were busy tacking up signs, reading "no pillows today."

PACIFIST PASTOR DENIED CITIZENSHIP

NORTHAMPTON, Feb. 27—Declaring his religious scruples forbid him to shoulder arms in defense of the United States, the Rev. Frederick H. Thompson, 37, pastor of Northampton Congregational Church, was denied citizenship today by Judge J. Arthur Baker in Hampshire County Superior Court. H eis a native of Digby, N. S.

"I cannot preach one thing and do another," said the young clergyman in a court room crowded with others whose petitions for American citizenship had just been granted.

"My position as a minister of hte Gospel of Christ and it is contrary to my belief to shoot people, I would resign as minister if the call came."

Judge Baker, as solemnly replied:

"I know of many ministers who would shoot any enemy of the United States and I can see no reason why you should be any different. Every person should do all they can to win this war.

"I have little patience with people who are so conscientious."

The clergyman appeared stunned when his petition was denied. He said:

"I would drive an ambulance or serve as Army chaplain. As a child I could go hunting because I couldn't bear to kill."

The Rev. Mr. Thompson is married and has two children. He was graduated from the University of Maine in 1925.

miments in the Far East, Colonel?

His answer is that the democracies cannot conceivably win the war by fighting thinly and simultaneously on two such wide-flung fronts and that, therefore, they must select the more important of the two theaters. If Hitler is humbled, he says, the whole interlocked mass of the Axis will come apart like a released log jam.

Thus, except for a delaying action in Asia, he would throw every energy and implement against Germany, through Italy, on the principle that wars are won on the ground and that naval and air might are still auxiliaries of the land armies. Until we have the daring and resource to attack we can never budge the Nazi machine which, outside Russia, has continued to grow self-sustaining.

As a treatise it is a brilliantly written, penetrating audit of war as an art, framed for the lay mind by a man who blends philosophy, the niceties of the written word and a shrewd background of the savage science. Furthermore the author is one of those rare genii, the iconoclast-soldier who dares to flout traditional military precepts.

Thus, he turns the full force of his scorn on the arm-chair Napoleons of the staff who plan intricate moves that are gems of beforehand-theory but fail in actual practice.

"No oriental potentate can be more mystical, more august, more unapproachable, than your born-to-the-purple staff officer," he writes with cutting contempt which may earn him a sound back slap from Washington, D. C.

"In this seventh heaven of brass hats, guarded by the twin dragons of preconception and anonymity, rude reality must walk tiptoe . . ."

RECEPTION DOUBTFUL

Whether Col. Kernan's work will receive credence and recognition as a sound military theme in Washington, is doubtful. But it does offer a refreshing analysis of what has, and is, anchoring Democratic war effort.

Every man-jack and lady-jill in this country admits you can't win wars until you have put a crushing force at a decisive point unless you wish to play for a stalemate. Which in itself would amount to defeat.

Cautious temerity and dilatory decision, he claims, is losing us the war and will continue to lose it until the time when we are willing to meet Hitler at his own game and fight with the same massed fortitude that the Nazi machine has fought.

It's worth reading! It's worth considering!

pour all their strength without thought of the sacrifice.

The Americans join United States air and naval forces whose blows against the invaders, inflicting a daily mounting toll, have bolstered the Indies' confidence that the Japanese will find their defense too strong and the cost too great to score the blow still needed to cap their conquest of these islands.

Gen. Ter Poorten spoke in English in his broadcast welcome to the United Nations allies. He gave them the same blunt message Dutch officials have been giving their people—that Java is in peril, that there is no room for blind optimism, but there is none for pessimism, either.

"I know your gallant record in the history of fighting," he told them. "I know I can rely on you Americans, Australians and British to fight equally gallantly now alongside us Dutch."

The influential newspaper Soerabaja declared Japan had lost one-third of her cruisers, along with heavy blows to her air force, in two and a half months of war in the Pacific, and told the Dutch there should be "no talk to the effect that the enemy's losses are of no concern to him."

It pointed out that Japan, the aggressor, must attack and that as the enemy attacks "he incurs losses which must give him something to think about."

CANADA FLIERS CAPTURED

ROME (from Italian broadcasts), Feb. 27 (AP)—Six Canadians were captured, unhurt, today when an RAF Wellington bomber was shot down into the sea by anti-aircraft fire in a dawn raid on the Sicilian port of Messina.

Tokyo Raiders Bomb Island On India Coast

moving north along the east bank, apparently in an attempt to flank the defenders.

Heavy blows by the British and American fliers, credited with knocking out at least 55 Japanese planes yesterday and the day before, helped the defense by keeping Jap planes from winning control in the air.

ATTACK AIR BASE

In the first raid on the Andaman islands the Japs were said to have dropped four bombs and turned machine guns on ground personnel at Port Blair airfield.

When they came back yesterday they circled overhead for 50 minutes before dropping 12 bombs. In that raid, too, they were said to have machine-gunned objectives on the ground.

The bombing of Port Blair, at the south of the Andaman group of 204 jungle-covered islands in the Indian ocean, between lower Burma and the tip of India, was the first Japanese attack on Indian territory.

The islands occupy an important position athwart shipping lanes from the Indian ocean to the Bay of Bengal, and the British since 1868 have operated at Port Blair a large meteorological station for shipping weather reports.

The islands also have been used since 1858 as an Indian convict settlement. Transportation of convicts to Andaman was stopped, however, in 1921 and the prison settlement has been reduced with a view to discontinuance.

Throughout the early days of shipping east of India, and until 1844, when the British troopships Briton and Runnymede were driven ashore there, the islands were shunned by mariners because of the hostility of their natives, a ferocious people of pigmy stock.

Youth Admits Killing 22 Elderly Couples

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Feb. 27 (AP)—Sheriff Sam Henry announced today the arrest of a 19-year-old Negro, who, he said, confessed hacking to death two elderly South Carolina farm couples within the last two weeks.

He identified the Negro as Jesse Jones and said he was arrested at the home of his grandmother in Spartanburg.

PICKING UP DISCARDS DANGEROUS PRACTICE IN PLAYING GIN RUMMY

Josephine Culbertson, famed authority on gin rummy, the fascinating card game now sweeping the country, tells you today of the beginner's worst mistake.

By JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

In gin rummy, as in all card games of skill, there is a mathematical basis for many correct plays. But mathematics plays only a very minor part in gin rummy strategy. You do not have to be a mathematician to play well, nor do you even have to memorize mathematical rules laid down by others.

There are, of course, some matters of probability which are apparent even to the beginner. It is obvious that you have a better chance of making a matched set if you have, for example, a pair of queens than if you have Spade K-Q. In fact, you have exactly twice as good a chance. You will make a matched set with the pair of queens if you draw either of two possible cards—either of the two other queens.

There is only one card you can draw to give you a matched set with the Spade K-Q—the Spade J, since an ace can be used to make a sequence only in A-2-3.

Likewise, a chance for a sequence is twice as valuable if it is open at both ends. Thus, Club 9-8 offers two chances to fill—the Club 10 or the Club 7; whereas Club 9-7 offers only one chance, the Club 8. With a choice of breaking up one of these combinations or the other, the one which offers the greater chance to fill must naturally be kept.

Carrying this a bit further, the best three-card holding is one which can be made into a matched set with any one of four cards. Suppose you have two sequence chances, the Heart Q-J and the Club 6-5. Any one of four cards now will give you a sequence Heart K, Heart 10, Club 7 or Club 4.

However, four cards in your hand are occupied in reserving these chances to make a sequence. If you have a holding like Spade 8-7 and Diamond 7, you still have four chances to fill—Spade 9, Spade 6, Heart 7 or Club 7—but only three cards in your hand are occupied in waiting for one of these chances to come through.

BEGINNER'S MISTAKE

Realizing this, the beginner often has a tendency to pick up his opponent's discard when it gives him a three-card combination. Thus, holding Spade 8 and Heart 7, if his opponent discards the Spade 7 he will pick it up. This is perhaps the worst mistake he could make.

In the first place, your picking up the discard will warn your opponent. He will not throw a spade close to the seven which may give you a sequence, nor will he throw another seven which may give you a matched set. Being fearful of throwing these cards, he may find himself later with a pair of sevens or an incipient sequence in spades; and if you should later want to break up your combination of Spade 8-7, Heart 7, you may be giving him a matched set.

Furthermore, your opponent can hold spades and sevens fairly safely, knowing that he can probably lay them off if by chance you should knock.

There are occasions when you do make such a pickup, but usually you would have done so anyway.

STUDY DISCARDS

If your opponent discards a three or a deuce, you pick it up, but only partly because it gives you a three-card combination. Far more important is the fact that it reduces your count at the same time. A four is about the highest card you should pick up for this purpose; rarely a five, and never anything higher.

One of the comforting things we learn from the mathematics of gin rummy is this: If you are dealt a poor hand, your opponent has probably been dealt a poor hand, too. If you need a certain card to fill a matched set, it is probable that your opponent does not need this card, and if he draws it, he will promptly discard it (unless it is a very low card).

DRAW FROM STACK

Therefore, unless your opponent's discard fills a matched set for you or is a very low card, you had better take your chance at drawing from the stock. Eventually your opponent is pretty sure to throw a card that will match the ones you have. He will do this, that is, if you do not give your hand away by telling him what cards you need.

Incidentally, if you are dealt a very good hand, it is mathematically probable that your opponent has also been dealt a good hand.

Tomorrow—Playing three games at one time.

UNFAIR TIRE EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—Hans Hirsch was joyous when police recovered his coupe and he found the car had been polished and seemed to be in a better condition than when it disappeared.

His happiness gave way to gloom, however, when he discovered four old worn-out tires, ready for the scrap pile, had been substituted for his new ones.

4 POLICEMEN DECORATED

SALISBURY, Md., Feb. 27 (AP)—Four Salisbury policemen wore a bit of color on their uniforms after target practice, but the color was not insignias or merit. While shooting they had leaned against a bridge railing on which someone had forgotten to put a sign, "Wet Paint."

NO TIRE SHORTAGE HERE

NEW BRITAIN, Ct., Feb. 27 (AP)—A New Britain motorist applied this four-way solution to his tire problem. He:

1—Bought two used cars; 2—removed the two best tires from each of them; 3—replaced them with worn tires from an auto he already owned and 4—re-sold the cars. Net cost to him from the transactions: $20, or $5 per tire.

COLORADO HAS LAUNCHING

DENVER, Feb. 27 (AP)—Mile-high-in-the-Rockies Denver will have its first ship-launching today. Miss Cynthia Carr, daughter of Governor Ralph L. Carr, will bash a bottle of Pikes Peak snow water against a freight car containing the first pre-fabricated ship hull parts made in Colorado for the Navy.

MEN BE SEATED

CHICAGO, Feb. 27 (AP)—With men seated all about her, Miss Rose Doble stood hanging to a strap for about 20 minutes in a crowded street car before she collapsed.

The woman who is 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 125 pounds, told a policeman that before going home from work she had stopped at a Red Cross post and donated a pint of her blood.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 27 (AP)—Eight ewes belonging to John S. Neubert must have heard about the "food for victory" drive. They gave birth to four sets of twins, two sets of triplets, one set of quadruplets, and a set of quintuplets—a total of 23 lambs.

DEBUTANTE ON ICE . . . Jeanne LaCroix made her debut at a skating party which is being recalled in debutante memory books as one of the most novel and merry parties of the season . . .

A far cry from the usual glamorous ball in a flower bedecked setting with all the elaborate fixin's associated with coming out parties, Jeanne chose to have a robust outdoor get-together of sister debs and Harvardians on the skating pond at The Country Club . . .

The festivities started with a dinner for the deb's most intimate friends, served before a roaring open fire in the clubhouse . . . Later she and her parents received outdoors on the pond, with the light of a big bonfire and a new moon to provide a romantic setting for the affair . . . The stag line included practically all of the Harvard hockey and football teams . . .

Jeanne, who is called "Johnny" by her friends, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris LeCroix of Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. Robert G. Paine of Charles River sq. is setting an example of patriotic service to her post deb daughter Barbara Ann . . . Bright and early every morning she reports at Bundles for America headquarters to lend a helping hand in the daily routine of giving out yarn to be knitted into helmets, sweaters and scarves for our Army and Navy, and doing her bit in the various clerical and bookkeeping jobs involved in such a large charitable organization . . .

The Masked Jury

A GIRL IN LOVE

PARENTS OPPOSE FIANCE

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF THE JURY: I am a girl in my middle 'teens and I'm very much in love with a young man five years my senior. We have been going together secretly for some time, but, due to the fact that he is of a different nationality, my parents forbid me to see him.

When I say I can't live without him, I'm putting it mildly. I'm nearly crazy thinking about this problem. I love my parents and yet I love this boy.

Every time we go out he begs me to marry him. He says it's the only thing to do if they want to separate us.

Should I give him up?—N. M. R.

HOW THE JURY VOTED
Women: Yes, four; No, two
Men: Yes, five; No, one

TEACHER (woman): Yes. A girl in her middle teens, as she expresses it, should consider her parents' judgment and wishes.

HOUSEWIFE: Yes. Perhaps her parents are only trying to save her from a marriage she may later regret. Parents are often smarter than their children credit them with being.

SALESMAN: Yes. It isn't the difference in nationality I'm thinking of, but her age. If she were older my answer would be different.

DENTIST: Yes. She is too young to defy her parents by marrying. I advise her to think it over for a year or two.

STENOGRAPHER: No. Some parents never realize that a girl grows up and can fall in love.

PHOTOGRAPHER'S MODEL: No. I don't think she should give him up if she likes him that much.

PRESSMAN. Yes. Kids are always falling in love! In a couple of years from now she will probably thank her parents.

NEWS DEALER: No. What's nationality got to do with it? Don't they call this country the "Melting Pot"?

ARTIST (woman): Yes. Her parents probably know what's best for her. They usually do, but most of us find it out too late.

EXECUTIVE (woman): Yes. She should give him up temporarily to see whether the flame is as bright as she imagines it now.

ELECTRICIAN: Yes. Tell her to listen to her mother and father and she'll be better off. They probably think she's too young.

WAITER: Yes. I wouldn't have it on my conscience to tell a young girl to go out and disobey her parents.

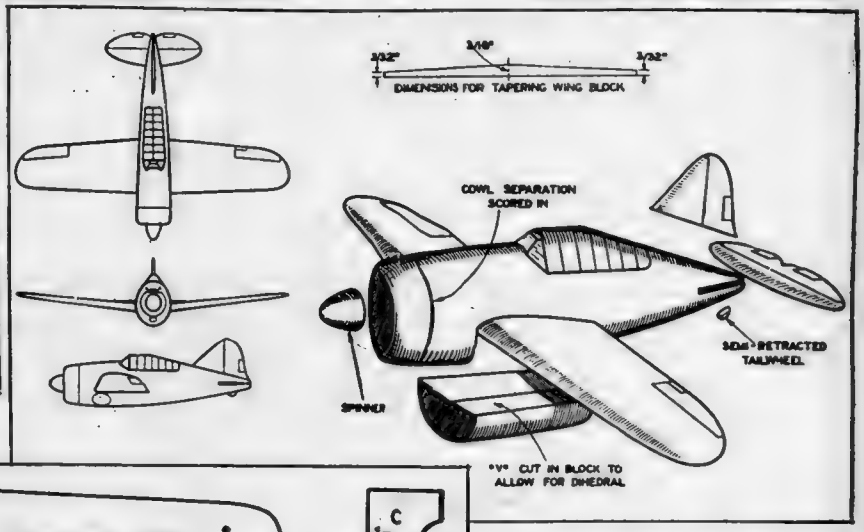
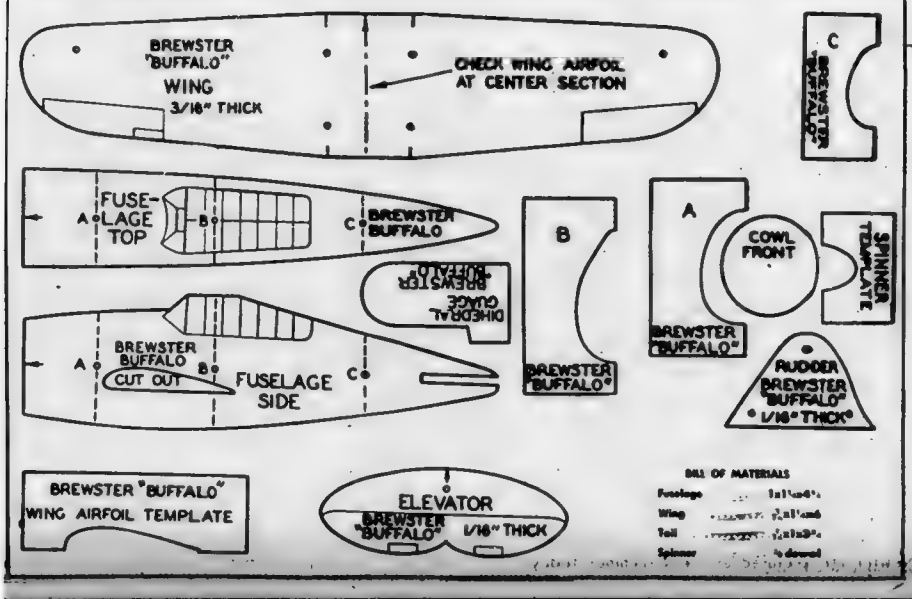
Brewster 'Buffalo' Plans for Junior Army





Here are the plans and specifications issued by the U. S. Navy Bureau of Aeronautics for the model of the Brewster F2A-3, more commonly known as the "Buffalo." It's a single-seat fighter plane used by the U. S. Navy, and because of its stubby fuselage, is sometimes called "Peanut." An air-cooled "Cyclone" engine powers the craft, which has a wing span of 35 feet and is 25 feet, 7⅜ inches long. Identification: Mid-wing monoplane; slightly tapered wings with rounded tips. Stubby "barrel-like" fuselage. Elliptical stabilizer-elevator. See Junior Army story on Page

OUR DAILY CITATION: To the officers and crews of United States submarines which during the past two days torpedoed two Japanese transport vessels, one auxiliary ship and one freighter. This is the kind of offensive action that is going to hasten the day of victory and peace for America.

ONE THING we'll always remember about Pearl Harbor: We took a licking there because the Army and Navy commands failed to co-operate and take joint precautions against the common threat.

Neither knew what the other was doing. Each assumed the other was doing the necessary things which, as it turned out, nobody did. Each was drawing different conclusions from the same situation.

Now there is evidence that this lesson of Pearl Harbor hasn't been heeded in our highest leadership.

We have in mind the contradictory announcements by Navy Secretary Knox and War Secretary Stimson regarding the "silent air raid" on the Pacific Coast in the darkness of Wednesday morning.

Navy Secretary Knox said emphatically that there were no planes over Los Angeles—"that is our understanding"—and that it was just a false alarm.

War Secretary Stimson said emphatically that there were planes over Los Angeles, possibly 15, operated by enemy agents trying to spread confusion, disclose location of anti-aircraft and slow down defense production.

The immediate reaction to this official inconsistency is one of utmost public confusion.

Next comes the suspicion that here is another case where the Army and Navy, right up to and including their department heads, are not co-operating.

Either Knox or Stimson was wrong, and obviously there had been no co-operative action on the problem.

A united effort could not possibly have produced such opposed opinions.

The confusion in Los Angeles during the action was pretty well localized. An area was blacked out, all traffic ceased and 4300 rounds of anti-aircraft ammunition was fired at what the New York Daily News called "The Great Whatizit."

But the confusion twice confounded over the statements of Navy Secretary Knox and War Secretary Stimson is nation-wide.

There is a wide, vicious circle here. Lack of unity AMONG our leaders results in confusing statements BY our leaders and SERIOUSLY ENDANGERS THE UNITY OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE.

We can't believe this is just a case of loose talk on the part of the Army and Navy heads.

In case it was, we want to be recorded with the opinion that loose talk in high places at the present time is just as dangerous as enemy bombers overhead.

THIS WAR WILL BE WON by DEEDS, not by words, and Donald M. Nelson, chief of the War Production Board, like all successful executives, is A MAN OF DEEDS.

When he does open his mouth it is to give orders, not to "explain," "apologize" or "suppose."

Hearing that airplane production was being hampered by an out-moded priority system that put tanks and naval vessels first, he promptly ORDERED that military aircraft should IMMEDIATELY go into the A-1-A class—top of the list, in other words.

He said, simply and succinctly, that as the President wanted 60,000 airplanes this year HE WAS GOING TO GET THEM.

He also immediately restricted the output of civilian planes and cut down the supply of aluminum the manufacturers of civilian airplanes were to receive.

On the same day he ended the controversy over the dollar-a-year war worker and those who serve without compensation.

He issued an order that the latter shall have no administrative responsibility and that the former must be an American, a man of "high integrity," have "outstanding experience," be a technician and that he must have earned at least $5600 a year before he became a dollar-a-year man.

All that pistol-shot energy illustrates the way the lately despised and kicked-around American industrialist does his work when he faces a great crisis.

TWO DAYS MORE—that is all the time left for German, Italian and Japanese aliens to apply for certificates of identification.

Those who neglect this important obligation must be prepared to suffer the consequences, which, in all probability, will be the concentration camp or some similar form of segregation.

The United States has been amazingly lenient with these persons who have come here from countries that are now waging war against us.

It would have been a simple matter for our officials in Washington to have obliged all enemy aliens to "sign up" in a single day like the millions of good American citizens who registered for the draft.

Instead, the United States allowed enemy aliens NINETEEN days to present themselves before the proper authorities.

That is undoubtedly a lot more consideration than any one of them would receive in his own land.

JAPAN ST. in San Francisco has been re-named Colin Kelly, Jr. st. Those San Franciscans are great people for action. They have to keep a special guard down at the San Francisco waterfront to stop citizens who want to start off for the Philippines in motorboats to relieve MacArthur . . . "Millions for Defense But Not One Cent for Nonsense" is the slogan a New Yorker suggests be put on a banner and stretched across Pennsylvania ave. in Washington for the benefit of our representatives there. A brilliant idea! . . . Men smokers in Germany are now limited to three cigarettes a day. Women get none. Trying to subdue the women and deprive them of their rights and privileges may turn out to have been one of the greatest of the Nazi mistakes.

ASIDES: Four of the five children of the Reddy family of Ossining, N. Y., were born on Aug. 27 in different years. Revealing this, Mary Reddy, one of said children states: "The aspect of the planets at time of one's birth with reference to disposition or character as influenced by one's horoscope seems a bit wrong in our case as all of us, though born the same date, are definitely very different in every way" . . . Ordinarily, I have little faith in most of the news emanating from Berlin, but when a dispatch from there reports that the Germans are worried about the progress of the Japs in the Far East, I am inclined to believe it. Must be remembered it was Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany who first expressed apprehensions as to "The Yellow Peril" . . . "Different Hair-Dos Build Morale" is the heading of a news item. No doubt such is the case. My girl friend's morale should be very high. She is always asking me: "Do you like my hair better this way than the way I had it last week?" Or "Do you like it better the way I had it last summer?" So far I have been unable to give a satisfactory answer to this query. I consider myself an observing fellow, but that hair-do proposition baffles me. I can't remember what the different ones look like. I have requested my girl friend hereafter to have snapshots taken of her many different hair-dos and then I may be able to offer an opinion as to which is the best.

SIDELIGHTS: Heard a man claim he could tell a woman's age by looking at her elbows. I still think only a cad spends his time trying to figure out a woman's age by looking at her hands, neck, elbows, etc. . . . Belief that the Japanese are suicide-minded is a fallacy. The suicide rate in Japan is far below that of German . . . In Greenville, Miss., a man walked from his house and shot and killed another man who was sitting in an automobile nearby. Asked to explain, the man who did the shooting said: "That fellow has been driving me crazy with his loud auto horn blowing." If you are a loud auto horn blower, do not fail to pause and reflect on this incident.

PLEASE NOTE: Know a baldheaded fellow who wants to get one of those hair-pieces such as the male film stars wear to make themselves look younger. But this man's wife keeps talking the idea down saying: "Don't be silly; you look all right." Most wives want to look younger themselves, but are against anything that might make their husband look younger.

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL: Twenty-nine per cent of the candy manufactured is chocolate. As a kid, I never was much of a chocolate candy fan. My favorite was those old-fashioned molasses candy bars . . . "What is there to this claim that those born in the winter months are smarter than those born in the summer? I was born on July 12, and I would like to know," writes a Baltimore subscriber. There's nothing to it. As a matter of fact, the records seem to indicate those born in the summer are the most likely to succeed . . . "Wives spend too much for stockings and do not usually take good care of them," writes a Boston husband. "A run in a nylon stocking can be mended for a dime and this will increase the life of a stocking two months. But when the average wife gets a run in her stocking she throws it away and buys a new pair. It isn't right."

PASSING BY: "Sunny Jim" Coffoth. One of greatest fight promoters in ring history and also once the top man at the old Tijuana race track in Mexico. Mr. Coffroth, who has seen in action every heavyweight from John L. Sullivan to Joe Louis, says the best ever was 'Ruby Bob' Fitzsimmons. After him, Joe Louis.

DISCOVERY: "Washington has inaugurated scientific telephoning. As an aid to efficiency, telephone girls and secretaries have been instructed to eliminate the 'hello' form of greeting and reply to a call by stating the name of their office." That's from a Washington dispatch. So Washington is just finding out about answering the phone with name of office instead of "hello." And the government efficiency experts are so proud of this "discovery" they call it "scientific telephoning." The elimination of the "hello" by telephone girls in New York business offices has been in practice at least 15 years.

Ginger Rogers

Broadway's Voice

GINGER OUTSHINES DISCOVERER

By Dorothy Kilgallen

NEW YORK, Feb. 27—Manhattan is the place where people come to be found by fame. As a rule, anyway. But there are people who break the rules and one of them is a man who came to Broadway to be forgotten by fame. He came to the Big Town not to knock on Opportunity's door, but to get away from a city that was enchanted by him.

He was the kind of attraction that happens in show business once in a very blue moon, perhaps not that often. His talents were just the average talents of the average musician. He wasn't handsome, certainly—he wore his red curly hair in long, musician fashion, and he had a broad grin and a few scattered freckles. He didn't have a perfect profile, and although he broke the front pages consistently, it was never through his personal efforts of participation.

RUTH ETTING

Paul Ash was his name. He was just a piano playing band leader from Milwaukee, but when he hit Chicago in the Roaring Twenties he caused more commotion than the Chicago fire. To the feminine population of the Windy City he was Valentino and Don Juan and Romeo and Charles Boyer and the Dream Prince to end all Dream Princes.

The man with the long red hair came to Chicago's Loop in the era of rolled stockings and shingle bobs and swagger sticks and speakeasies. He opened at the McVickers Theater with a band on the stage. Within two weeks crowds stood four abreast around the entire block waiting from early until late to sit through a film they would never remember seeing, just to watch him wave a baton and grin.

BEFORE LONG Balaban and Katz built a million dollar theater especially for him and his followers. He was the "Rajah of Jazz" and so they named the theater the Oriental. One of the busiest thoroughfares in the Loop was rechristened Paul Ash Lane.

WOMEN who had never met him personally divorced their husbands because they were so hypnotized by his charm. Once an irate spouse brandished a revolver and took a shot at Ash from the mezzanine. He missed.

Ash specialized in featuring proteges with his band every week, and the girls would applaud because the Rajah of Jazz asked them to. It didn't mean a thing to them, though, that one of the proteges was to become Ruth Etting of Ziegfeld fame, another, Joe Besser, who is stopping shows in "Sons o' Fun" on Broadway now, and a third Ginger Rogers, of Hollywood, and the Academy Award.

FROM CHICAGO Ash came to New York. He packed both the Manhattan and the Brooklyn Paramounts and introduced another protege—Helen Kane—who became a star instantly.

But Ash didn't want to be a matinee idol or a star-maker. Funny, but true. He was just a fellow who wanted to lead a band. His wife and their daughter were his two big interests. The girls who swooned over him embarrassed him. He loved baseball games and prize fights; didn't care much about night clubs. He hated being called "The Ashcan" by men who disliked him because their ladies liked him.

He was part of an era and while that era lived there was no escape for him. But the era died. The rolled stockings disappeared and skirts went up and cocktails became legal and appurtenances of the Roaring Twenties, like hip flasks and swagger sticks and yellow slickers, became antiques.

And the flappers grew up, and didn't clamor any more for the Rajah of Jazz, and Paul Ash escaped.

NOW HE'S DOING what he wants to do. He lives in Jackson Heights and commutes to work by subway. The theater he's playing at is jammed every day. But Paul Ash would tell you—and happily—that he isn't the one who's responsible for the crowds.

One of his proteges is, though.

The flappers would remember her. She was the long-legged, skinny kid who looked like a John Held, Jr., cartoon and wore evening dresses with rhinestone straps and sang slangy songs about love. And danced the Charleston furiously.

She's the one who's responsible for the crowded house that hears Paul Ash's music.

Because Paul Ash is leading the orchestra in the pit at the Roxy Theater—and nobody swoons or brings a box lunch. They come, primarily, to see a picture called "Roxie Hart"—starring Ginger Rogers.

BOSTON after DARK

By GEORGE HOLLAND

THE "INSIDE" STORY OF THE SOMEWHAT startling vote in repudiation of pensions for Congressmen goes like this, according to an informed friend of this corner . . . Bay State voters—particularly those of Boston—were aghast when Majority Leader John W. McCormack, Congressman John E. Casey of Clinton and Congressman Thomas A. Flaherty, who hails from Charlestown, all were polled in favor of granting the pension grab . . . How possibly could these astute Massachusetts Democrats flirt with political suicide in going against the public's wish in voting down the most notorious piece of "sneak" legislation since Roosevelt II came to power?

THIS PRESENT CONGRESS has been a much-criticized body almost since the day it convened, and the criticism reached its height, admittedly, in the nation-wide blast against the pension grab . . . But this same Congress has been caricatured the length and breadth of the land as a "rubber-stamp Congress" . . . Supposing it voted unanimously, under pressure, against the pension grab after being polled almost unanimously as favoring the same measure a few weeks ago . . . Another ferocious blast of invective and criticism would surely have followed, and again the cry would have been raised that the membership of the Lower House had listened once again to its master's voice, that voice—of course—belonging to the President . . . For the President was known to have been upset by the pension grab, reasoning correctly that it had laid the entire Congress open to criticism at a time when respect and public support was needed.

NOW, IT IS WELL KNOWN that neither John McCormack nor Joe Casey of Clinton would oppose the White House in any consideration, trivial or large . . . And Tom Flaherty has been a reliable Roosevelt supporter continuously.

THE "INSIDE" VERSION we get is that the White House, taking a long view of the pension business, believed that a blanket vote of "yes" in repudiating the pension scheme would have laid Congress open to bitter challenge on the item of courage . . . Some "brave" men, even at a possible cost of future political strength, were needed . . . Into the breach stepped the stalwart Massachusetts trio, McCormack, Casey and Flaherty . . . And they voted three loud "nays" to the pension renege . . . When one-third of the entire "nay" vote came from Massachusetts, with the other 47 states only mustering twice that number of votes, we may judge that the "sacrifice" was not one which many would dare to make . . . But McCormack is regarded as unbeatable as a candidate, and Casey is a particular pet of the Administration, which is running him—at this writing—for Governor of Massachusetts . . . Tom Flaherty is a strong vote-getter, and his stature has increased in his two terms . . . So if "goats" they were, the Bay State trio of no-men could afford the sacrifice better, perhaps, than any close friends of "The Boss."

STAGE-SCREEN STAR MARY BOLAND

Shares Honors With Distinguished Pair

TURN BACK, O TIME! In the next couple of weeks, three new shows will bring a hodge-podge of stars, featured players and garden-variety of actors and actresses to Boston theaters . . . Of the half-hundred players involved in these shows, only nine are starred and featured . . . And the groupings are such that in all three shows actors or actresses, who once were sufficient unto themselves as stars, are paired or grouped with other prominent players . . . Take "The Rivals" . . . The stars are Bobby Clark, Mary Boland and Walter Hampden.

THEN there are William Gaxton, Victor Moore and Vera Zorina starred in "Louisiana Purchase" . . . Gaxton was starring in "The Connecticut Yankee" at the time of which we speak, and Victor Moore was being headlined with his wife, Emma Littlefield, in vaudeville.

ALSO IN "LOUISIANA PURCHASE" is Irene Bordoni . . . Here was a bona-fide star of top dimension, and in the days of this reminiscence Irene was starred in "So This Is Paris" (to name only one attraction) . . . It seems that solo stars of a generation ago come in bunches like bananas in 1942.

MISS AMERICA TESTS FOR FILM ROLE

By Louella O. Parsons

Rosemary La Planche

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 27—The dramatic story of the late Homer Lea, the hunchback who was denied entrance into West Point because of his affliction, is attracting the attention of several movie companies. Lea, who always wanted to be a soldier, went to China and lived there for many years. He wrote two brilliant books, "Valor of Ignorance" and "The Day of Saxon," which predicted the terrifying days in which we are now living. Neither America nor England paid attention to his books, but they were carefully studied in Japan and Germany.

Marshall Stimson, Los Angeles attorney and a school friend of Lea's, has written the story of the hunchback's life. Even before the serial started in the Herald-Express there was talk that various directors were trying to buy it. Lea even outlined how the Japs would attack this coast, saying it would be by a pincer movement, starting with Alaska on one end and Southern California on the other, and Seattle would be one of the first points of attack.

BETTE DAVIS

ON THE WARNER LOT, quietly taking a test, is Rosemary La Planche, who made the headlines last year when she was crowned Miss America of 1941. At the time Rosemary was so widely publicized there was much talk she would be brought to Hollywood and tested. But nothing happened.

Now she is here and being given an extensive test, and if she photographs as well as she looks, you may expect to see her in "The Gibson Girl" movie, which will be made some time this coming year. Jean Negulesco is personally supervising her tests.

"STAGE COACH" was the best Western thriller made in years. People loved it. Now M-G-M is about to start "Apache Trail," by Ernest Haycox, author of "Stage Coach," and it's another thriller. William Lundigan, the lad who was on the Warner lot for so long without having any outstanding roles, has the lead, and Donna Reed, one of the younger players, will play the Spanish senorita.

This casting is proof of two things: M-G-M wants to give the patrons plenty of good old-fashioned Western drama and the younger generation will get a chance.

I hear, through the grapevine route, there are a number of important contracts held by some of the old-time favorites that will not be renewed.

GALS WHO SECRETLY THINK they could out-act Bette Davis, outlook Lana Turner and out-oomph Ann Sheridan if they only had the chance will get a chance to prove it in a series of shorts which Herman Wohl will produce for Chadwick studios.

Wohl's idea is to take a pretty girl and put her through a screen test, which will be photographed. Then the paying customers will be given cards as you leave the theater asking you to vote on whether the girl has possibilities or not.

The series is to be called "Pick Your Star." The first two unknowns selected are Robert Montane and Julia Hopkins.

OPA TO CLAMP CURB ON WAR RENT GOUGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson within a few days will take firm action to curb inflationary rentals in war-boom cities and towns housing upward of 7,000,000 persons, it was learned today.

The Office of Price Administration will designate officially the first group of defense rental areas, with recommended ceilings to be applied, and with the boundaries of each area defined by local maps.

The designation will put the communities on 60-day notice to reduce rents to the government-recommended levels. If this is not accomplished by state or local action, OPA may move in with powers conferred in the price control bill to enforce lower rentals.

The number of areas designated was not divulged. Rent increases ranging between 5 and 100 per cent have been reported from numerous communities.

NUTRITION FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

ABOUT COOKING VEGETABLES

Save vitamins and minerals by cooking vegetables in the least amount of water possible. Water left clinging to the greens after washing is often sufficient. Do not cook vegetables any longer than necessary. It's surprising how quickly they cook tender. Use any excess cooking water or juices in gravies and soups. Don't use soda in cooking vegetables.

Exclusive — MRS. ROOSEVELT SAYS:

Ban Haunting Fears

By ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK CITY, Thursday — Yesterday was a rather leisurely day in Washington. A few friends came to lunch and, at 3 o'clock, I went down to the Library of Congress. There, the Pan-American coffee bureau, presented to the division in charge of records, the recordings of my Sunday night broadcasts.

Back at the White House, I had a most interesting talk with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Snow, who have been back from China for about a year. Mrs. Snow is deeply interested in the Chinese co-operative movement, which receives help from all those interested in industry in China. They are making their own machines and gradually working away from the entirely hand-made products. It seems to be the best foundation on which to build a better standard of living for the people.

Later, a few people came to tea and to dinner. After dinner, I went to a meeting of the Washington Newspaper Guild. The bill which is called "The War Secrets Bill," came up for considerable discussion. Though I have never yet had an opportunity to read it in full, I hope it will be very clearly understood and carefully discussed before its final passage.

I took the night train to New York City and began my day with an hour and a half at the dentist. Then my aunt, Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, and three of my young cousins, whom I see rather rarely, lunched with me. It was a grand family reunion.

Several people came in during the afternoon, and I spoke in the evening at a meeting for the foreign born, sponsored by the civilian defense volunteer office, of which Mrs. Winthrop W. Aldrich is chairman.

I WAS INTERESTED to read in a little item this morning, that people may be asked to save their anti-freeze solutions from their cars when they drain them in the spring, since it will be impossible to buy solutions next year. By then, perhaps, both tires and oil will be so well rationed, that few people will use any vehicle except for absolutely necessary work. Even if we had to drain the water out of our cars every night, I imagine we could manage. I am not going to worry about anything so far away as next winter!

In some things, I think it will be wise for us not to look beyond the immediate needs. In others, I wish we could induce people to behave as though the war was going to last an indefinite period. They then would produce with increasing rapidity and forget the haunting fear of empty factories, closed down in the future. We would have more tanks, guns and planes, which are a prerequisite to the final ending of the war.

Mother Kills Girl, 14, to Save Her From Boys

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 27 (AP)—A mother, worrying over her 14-year-old daughter's dates with boys, shot and killed the sleeping girl today, Detective Sergt. Earl O'Clair said.

Mrs. Imogene Martin, 49, shot her daughter, Wilma, pretty high school sophomore, three times in the back, O'Clair reported.

He declared he learned that Mrs. Martin rose from a bed she shared with her daughter, obtained a pistol from a dresser drawer and fired at close range. The husband and father, Sam Martin, real estate salesman, sleeping in the same room, was awakened by the shots.

"You can't do anything with her . . . I have just shot her," Mrs. Martin told her husband.

O'Clair said he was told by a son, Bob, 16, that his mother had not been well; was concerned over reports young people "keep fast company," and was anxious to protect her only daughter.

County Atty. Richard F. Yatless said Mrs. Martin admitted the shooting.

Movie Matinee Killer Goes on Hunger Strike

CHICAGO, Feb. 7 (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Clarence McDonald, charged with the matinee movie murder of his high school girl friend in a loop movie Tuesday, has gone on a hunger strike in the Cook County jail.

Warden Frank Sain disclosed today that the boy had refused to eat anything since he was taken to the jail yesterday morning. Unless he accepts food soon, the warden said, forced feeding will be undertaken.

The county grand jury was reported yesterday to have named McDonald in a true bill charging him with the fatal shooting of Miss Dorothy Broz, 17, as they sat in the balcony of the palace theater.

Survivors Off 2 Ships Landed

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Feb. 27 (AP)—Survivors from two vessels torpedoed and sunk in the western Atlantic have been brought into this port within the last 24 hours. Identities of the ships were not disclosed.

The first group of survivors said a single torpedo broke their vessel in half and that two of the crew were killed. The others drifted nearly a day in a lifeboat before they were picked up.

Beauty

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL—It's not old-fashioned to wear your heart on your sleeve these days . . . or on your lapel as Barbara Stanwyck does . . . for sweet sentimentality is very much in style, says Arline Gould. And perhaps that's one reason why the delectable roses-and-spice fragrance she describes today is so much of a rage!

NEW BEAUTY 'TOKEN BOX' MAKES ITS APPEARANCE

By ARLINE GOULD

ONCE YOU MAY have laughed off the slightest suggestion that in your neat modern frame there existed an ounce of sentimentality . . . oh, yes . . . you were a woman of heart . . . but sentimentality . . . that was out! Today you're the girl who finds in sentimentality something of very great value . . . and you find, surprisingly enough, that it's appreciated in you by those staunch souls, the men!

So to your everlasting credit you stay sentimental about your good looks . . . you don't let them slip an iota. And you . . . with many others . . . suddenly discover that there is one certain fragrance, an old-fashioned potpourri mixture of roses and spice, that fits your day and your moods like no other!

It's chiefly dedicated to bath things which are part of the ritual in which you renew flagging strength, and in your energy-gathering rest hours you luxuriate your senses in the sweet, fresh aura with which they surround you.

The people who sponsored this amazingly successful fragrance have a finger on the public pulse . . . there's no doubt about it! And they've just brought out a new beauty box, a "token box" which is as appealing as can be.

It's a letter-size, hinged box . . . and inside, tucked in with the soap, cologne, talc and a wee sachet pillow is the "token" . . . a quaint padded picture frame! It's snapshot size. This is separate from the box . . . and you may keep it inside, reserved for your private peeks when lifted off the letters you'll substitute for the toiletries . . . or you may put it right there before the eyes of the world on your desk or dresser.

The box itself, gaily decorated with early American motifs in red, green, blue and gold against a luxurious-looking cream background will do just as nicely for costume jewelry, hairpins or ribbons. Price? One small dollar, for all that!

For shopping information on this unusual new "token box," phone Arline Gould, LIBerty 4000, except the week-end, or write, care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

NEWS FOR MODERN WOMEN

• FOOD •

By Martha Lee

MANY HOMEMAKERS TODAY are spending hours from home, engaged in defense activities—sewing, first aid, and the like. For these busy days it's good to keep in mind a few extra easy dishes that can be whipped together in no time and tucked in the oven about half an hour before dinner time. The hot pie we're going to tell you about is that sort of dish.

It is hearty and satisfying, with hard-cooked eggs and canned salmon as its mainstay and canned clam chowder soup for a deeply flavorful sauce. And it boasts a superb cheese pastry crust. When that crust is broken into and the helpings lifted smoking hot and savory onto warmed plates, it's something to be relished.

You can save last minute preparation time by hard-cooking the eggs at breakfast and also by working the pastry and putting it to chill in the refrigerator before you go out.

EGG AND SALMON PIE WITH CHEESE CRUST

1 can condensed clam chowder
¼ cup milk
1 can (1 lb.) salmon
3 hard-cooked eggs

Stir the milk into the clam chowder. Slice the eggs and arrange the slices in the bottom of a buttered casserole. Pour one-half of the clam chowder (which has been mixed with the milk) over the sliced eggs. Then arrange the layer of flaked salmon (from which the bones and dark skin have been removed) in the casserole. Pour the remaining clam chowder over the salmon. Cover with the cheese crust.

EGG AND SALMON Pie with Cheese Crust.

CHEESE CRUST

1¼ cups sifted flour
¼ tsp. salt
1-3 cup shortening
3 to 4 tbsp. cold water
¼ cup grated cheese

Sift flour, measure, add salt and sift again. Cut in the shortening. Add water gradually and mix with a fork, adding only enough water to hold mixture together. Chill thoroughly in the refrigerator. Roll out on a slightly floured board, then sprinkle with the ¼ cup grated cheese. Fold over 3 times and roll out again. Put cheese crust on egg and salmon pie and bake in a hot oven (450 deg. F.) for 25 to 35 minutes.

A shrimp and celery pie also suggests something quick and easy to prepare on busy days. This may be topped with plain pastry or baking powder biscuit dough.

A shrimp and celery pie also suggests something quick and easy to prepare on busy days. This may be topped with plain pastry or baking powder biscuit dough.

SHRIMP AND CELERY PIE

1 can condensed celery soup
½ cup milk
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped fine
2 cans (5¾ oz.) shrimp
1 cup green peas, cooked
1 tsp. curry powder, optional
Pastry or biscuit crust

Mix milk with the soup and add the eggs and curry powder. Put alternate layers of sauce, shrimp and green peas in a baking dish. Cover with crust and bake in a hot oven (400 deg. F.) for 20 to 30 minutes. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

STANDARD BISCUITS

2 cups flour
½ tsp. salt
3 tsp. baking powder
3 to 4 tbsp. shortening
¾ cup milk

Sift flour with salt and baking powder; cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk all at once and mix just until dough follows fork around bowl. Turn out on lightly floured surface; knead gently ½ minute. Roll or pat ¾ inch thick and cut with biscuit cutter. Place rounds on top of shrimp pie in baking dish. (When using this recipe for table biscuits, bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (450 deg. F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 16 medium-sized biscuits.

The Correct Thing

By Elinor Ames

DON'T DO THIS!

No well bred woman complains about the service, the food, etc., in a restaurant or club. If, when she is with an escort, she is not satisfied with table location, food or service she tells him [illegible] and doesn't go to that restaurant again.

Fashion

UNDER THE CAP that betokens Service—frou frou! Who said that a girl who's gone serious-minded about her duties can't retain every ounce of feminine effect . . . yes, even a certain frivolity? Here's the newest coiffure, designed in a smart salon. It's streamlined yet soft with the cap on . . . and the fluffy topknot perks up your whole appearance when the cap is tossed aside. Our Beauty and Fashion Department can tell you where to "find" this hair-do!—ANNICE BRINK.

ONE-PIECE SLACK SUIT SOUTHERN STYLE ITEM

By BETTINA BEDWELL

IT'S PROBABLY the influence of the utility work suit for women that has bloomed since war began, which has produced the one-piece slack suit as a leading item in southern styles.

This kind of slack suit with a top coat make one of the best ensembles for the southern visitor. Miss Dulin has sketched one for you.

Pollack, the famed sports clothes designer, makes this one-piece slack suit of white rayon in a herringbone pattern. The knee length top coat is made of bright red smooth surfaced wool, and is intended for different kinds of usage.

It has a tie-on belt and a bloused waisted backline. A big patch pocket is set on the left hip. The trousers of the slacks are narrower than those of last year, but plenty wide enough for comfort.

Vacation With Pay to Woman In Labor Row

FINT, Mich., Feb. 27 (INS)—An enforced and extended vacation with pay for Mrs. Harriet Stitt appeared today to be the only solution to the jurisdictional dispute which has caused work stoppage three days in a row at the Marvel-Schebler carburetor plant which has war contracts.

When the plant signed a UAW-AFL contract, Mrs. Stitt was the only one of the 300 employes remaining under the UAW-CIO banner. The AFL demanded her dismissal and the company complied.

Recently, however, the NLRB ruled there had been discrimination and ordered her to return to work with back pay—about $2400.

Although her husband, Neil, is an AFL employe of the Consumers Power Co., Mrs. Stitt stuck to the CIO when she returned to work Monday. Since then, AFL employes at the Marvel plant have struck three times.

Unable to fire her, the management offered to pay her to stay away from the plant. She refused and was informed she was laid off.

Good Manners
Appreciates Condolences

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

My mother died recently, and many friends called at our house. Some of them just left their names, some left cards with a message of sympathy written on them, and others left notes, many offering to help in any way they could. We were too grief-stricken to receive these kind friends, but we are deeply grateful to them.

It never occurred to me that I am expected to return these calls. But my sister maintains that not to return these calls would give the impression that we are ungrateful.

What is your advice, Mrs. Beeckman? RITA.

It is not necessary to return these calls of condolence. No human being would expect that a person in such sorrow would have the inclination or the strength to go about returning calls.

When you have had time to readjust yourself I suggest that you write notes of thanks. These may be brief—one or two sentences—and they need not be written promptly.

Courtesy Tip

Don't dispose of an opinion contary to yours as "silly" or "ridiculous." This insults the intelligence of the person who holds it.—MRS. BEECKMAN.

'Girls Town' on Normandie Bill

Co-Star Role For June Storey

"Girls' Town," Edith Fellows-June Storey, co-starrer, is due at the Normandie tomorrow.

The new film takes audiences backstage in Hollywood, where every day hundreds of beautiful girls arrive in search of screen success, and remain to learn the heart-breaking truth that only one in a thousand makes the grade.

Stranded in Hollywood, the victims of an unscrupulous promoter, June Storey, "Miss Ohio Valley," and her younger sister, Edith Fellows, go to live in "Girls' Town," a co-operative boarding house run by Anna Q. Nilsson, who plays a character based on her own life in the film.

June loses no time in showing off her figure in a revealing bathing suit every chance she gets, thinking it a cinch to get a job in pictures. When she finally realizes it takes more than good looks to get ahead in a town where glamor girls are a dime a dozen, she has double-crossed so many persons that she hasn't a chance.

Miss Fellows, on the other hand, turns her back on a film career, and decides upon a husband, in the person of Kenneth Howell, young actor's agent.

Naturally, June doesn't wear a sweater in the film—Mr. Hays, head of the movies' own censor board, has forbidden such things . . . but there's nothing in the regulations about bathing suits, and June cavorts through half of the film in seaside attire.

In order to accept the role in "Girls' Town," June had to cut short her personal appearance trip with the "Sweater Girl Review," a troupe of young Hollywood film players including June Preisser, Anne Nagel, Barbara Pepper, Mary Healy and Peter Lynn Hayes, and fly home to the movie capital.

Incidentally, her plane, which was grounded at Salt Lake City because of blackout regulations, was one of the last to accept coast-to-coast passengers, all civilian flights to Los Angeles being cancelled because of the war.

JOHN GIELGUD, called by New York and London critics "one of the greatest actors of our age," plays the name role in "The Prime Minister," opening on the new Esquire screen tomorrow. "The Prime Minister" tells, on a lavish scale, the story of the public life and the private affairs of Disraeli.

Second Burma Road In So. Station Film

China's second Burma road, the Island of Java and Trinidad, site of a United States outpost in the Atlantic, are the subject of topical travelogues now unreeling at South Station Theater screen. Among other program features is a Grantland Rice Sportlight.

Bostonian in Film At the Old South

The beautiful and brainy Claire Boothe, who has written as well as been the subject of footlight dramas, and Boston's Virginia Cowles, whose war corresponding has made her a participant in real-life dramas, engage in a discussion with a noted news analyst on world war events and the outcome on Old South Newsreel Theater screen these days.

Their deductions are especially interesting paralleling as they do in many instances points made by the President in his Washington's Birthday broadcast.

Youngsters Go Ga-Ga Over Stars

"SON OF THE ISLANDS," 20th Century-Fox production in technicolor starring Betty Grable, Victor Mature and Jack Oakie with Thomas Mitchell, George Barbier, Billy Gilbert, Hilo Hattie and Harry Owens and his Royal Hawaiians. Directed by Walter Lang from original screen-play by Joseph Schrank, Robert Pirosh, Robert Ellis and Helen Logan. Lyrics and music by Mack Gordon and Harry Owens. At the Met.

By PEGGY DOYLE

The high-schoolers went ga-ga over "Gams" Grable, "Hunk o' Man" Mature and Jack Oakie (whose gags, it must be admitted among us oldsters, suffer from malnutrition if not lack of vitaphones) at yesterday's local premiere of "Song of the Islands."

Their excessively vocal appreciation was for once gratefully noted for it did drown out some of the more innocuous dialogue between those celebrated sweater-flaunters, Grable and Mature. Against the lush flora and fauna . . . plus an occasional garter snake . . . of the realistic made-in-Hollywood South Seas backgrounds, these two are a pretty sight. They do listen, though, as if they were ad libbing if you get what we mean.

As for old scene-stealer Oakie, whose Il Duce was one of the best things in Charlie Chaplin's "Great Dictator," he seemed to have forgotten that slick trick of his. From us to you, it is not entirely his fault, seeing the plot he's in.

Oh, the plot! It takes off with Mature and his aide and trouble-shooter, Oakie, crashing a fabulous Polynesian isle via their snazzy yacht. Their welcoming committee of one is none other than the hula-talking Betty Grable, who subsequently proves to be a girl named O'Brien who knows all the answers but favors "no."

It turns out that this boy-meets-girl idyll is to have some rough going for their respective fathers have been feuding for years over the right to use "Papa" O'Brien's property for the shipment of cattle.

George Barbier plays Mature's sputtering, fuming parent forever yerging on apoplexy. Thomas Mitchell, who deserves a better fate, is the laird of the island who loves to loaf and philosophize until Vic's father starts waging verbal warfare every hour on the hour.

In between tantrums—Betty and Vic go in for them as well as do the papas—singly, a deux, all together o rwith added assistance, the stars warble such provocative Gordon-Owens melodies as "Down On Ami, Ami, Oni, Oni Isle,' "O'Brien Has Gone Hawaiian," Sing Me a Song of the Islands," "Blue Shadows and White Gardenias" and "What's Buzzin', Cousin?"

There never was a more auspicious background for singing these Owens-jived love-songs than 20th Century-Fox has provided for this super-duper extravaganza.

The co-features, "No Hands on the Clock," co-stars Chester Morris and Jean Parker.

BETTE DAVIS, who always gives a starring performance, plays second-fiddle to starring Montey Woolley in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," at her own request. It is to be seen at the Paramount and Fenway.

Kaufman's New Comedy on Way

Harry Kaufman, producer of 14 musical shows for the Shuberts, and one of the owners of "Olsen and Johnson's "The New Helizapoppin" and "Sons O' Fun," went to Philadelphia a few days ago to see the Jay C. Flippen and Happy Felton company, now in the ninth week of its record-breaking run at Forrest Theater there.

Kaufman, in spite of his many theater activities, is averse to publicity for himself, and never permitted the use of his name on a program.

In commenting on the Philadelphia company, Kaufman said:

"I came here to see the new things we are doing in the production for the Boston engagement. I found 'Helizapopin' in Philadelphia four years ago with Lee Shubert, and this company is so good that I am tempted to take it back to New York for another run, after it plays in Boston. I think it should be called 'Laughs For The Duration.' I am pretty hard-boiled, but I laughed quite as much as the Philadelphians.

"In our other shows we have two or three stars. In The New Helizapoppin' we have 20 stars: Flippen, Felton, Barto and Mann, the Radio Rogues, Withers, Hardeen, Reso, Lyda Sue, Shirley Wayne, the Charioteers, the Debs, Ruth Faber and Stephen Olsen."

'The Man Who Came to Dinner' Now at Paramount, Fenway

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" has moved over to the Paramount and Fenway screens where his vitriolic wit is causing the theaters to rock with the outraged laughter of pop-eyed customers.

Monty Woolley, who created the character Alexander Woollcott is alleged to have inspired, repeats his stage triumph in the current screen translation. He is superb except to the long-suffering Stanleys, his unfortunate hosts in a small Ohio town.

Bette Davis plays the terrible-tempered Sheridan Whiteside's secretary, not a starring role but a role she nevertheless insisted upon playing because the character interested her. Of course she plays the role with her accustomed skill, although Woolley is always the star.

The glamorous, superficial actress is in handsome Ann Sheridan's entirely capable hands and Banjo has been safely entrusted to Jimmy Durante, who does beautifully by him.

On the same bill you'll be seeing "Steel Against the Sky," with Lloyd Nolan and Alexis Smith.

OLYMPIA'S FILMS

"Two-Faced Woman," starring Greta Garbo with Melvyn Douglas and Constance Bennett, is the week's attraction on Washington st. Olympia screen, together with "Sullivan's Travels," the Joel McCrea-Veronica Lake starrer.

"T N T" has become the tradename for the newest romantic team, Lana Turner and Robert Taylor, who give oomph and vitality to "Johnny Eager," holding over a second week at Loew's State and Orpheum.

Tops Uptown Bill

Uptown's current screen attraction, "Sullivan's Travels," teams Joel McCrea and Veronica Lake on a hobo-ing junket directed by the masterful writer-director, Preston Sturges. It is good fun the entire trip. On the same bill is "Paris Calling," starring Elizabth Bergner in her first American picture, a suspenseful spy mystery.

Globe to Offer Six Acts of Vaudeville on Sunday's Bill

Comedians, acrobats, impersonators and "blues" singers will share the six-act vaudeville bill which is a regular Sunday 1-to-11 p. m. feature at the Globe. The headliners will include Flynn and Pippin, Roger Williams and Co., Paul, Winicke and May; Gwen Read and Sammy Werson and Co. Also the two-feature screen program and, at the Sunday midnight show, a preview of the new burlesque.

Japs Preparing in '13, Says Sox Coach

SARASOTA, Fla., Feb. 27

Tommy Daly is one fellow who didn't need a map to follow President Roosevelt's Washington Birthday speech. The Red Sox third base coach, as a youngster of 18, became well acquainted with the Dutch East Indies, the Philippines and other spots where the United Nations are engaged in a death duel with the Axis.

TOMMY DALY

It happened in this fashion. Tommy had joined the White Sox in Boston in the fall of 1913, coming up from the Lowell club of the old New England League. He caught the entire series against the Red Sox, and so delighted was Manager Jimmy Callahan with Tom's catching that he said:

"I was planning to send you out for a year, but instead I'll take you on the world's tour with the Giants. That will be as much benefit to you as another year in the minors."

The tour started two weeks after the Chicago city series closed. Tommy broke up the first game with a triple, and established himself solidly with the veterans.

Only 18 and here he was playing with such established heroes as Tris Speaker, Sam Crawford, Jim Thorpe, Mike Donlin, Larry Doyle, Fred Merkle, Buck Weaver, Jim Scott, Joe Benz, Germany Schaefer, Red Fabre, Christy Mathewson et al. Jawn McGraw managed the Giants, Callahan the Chisox and "ringers".

The clubs played 44 games in the States (California, Texas, Oregon, etc., where they didn't play during the season), then sailed for Yokohama from Vancouver.

Woman Labor Way Back 30 Years Ago

"Mind you that was the fall of 1913," said Tom "and those Japs were preparing for this war even then. Must have been, because they met us well out in the harbor at Yokahoma and stripped us of our cameras.

"Just making sure we didn't take any pictures." We stayed a week in Tokio, playing Keio University and others.

"They were tricksters, those Japs" Tom went on. "Fly you with questions all day long but never tell you anything. It was revealing to see the girls coaling the vessels at Nagasaki. Woman labor way back 30 years ago. Imagine."

The tour continued to Hongkong, Shanghai, thence down through the Celebes sea to the Philippines, where they played two games in Manila.

From Manila, much as the Japs are trying to do, the entourage invaded Australia.

"The Australians were greatly interested in baseball," Tom commented. "We played at the Cricket clubs in Melbourne, Sydney and Adelaide and drew crowds of more than 25,000."

Ceylon was the next stop, and that visit will linger long in Tom's memory.

"Sir Thomas Lipton gave every one of the ballplayers 20 pounds of tea," said Tom "and entertained us royally."

Thence to Egypt, to Cairo, Alexandria et al, where Tommy amused himself between games by taking pictures of the Pyramids, the Sphinx, etc.

Across the Mediterranean to Naples and Rome where the boys had an audience with the Pope and where Tommy met some old high school classmates at the American College.

Hit Home Run For King George V

France was the next stop—Nice, Monte Carlo and Paris, then London where Tommy hit his never-to-be-forgotten home run before the King of England. King George V it was at that time.

"Thirty-three thousand saw that game," Tom recalls.

A game in Liverpool and thence home, sailing from a port called Hollyhead.

"We sailed on the Lusitania," said Tom.

It was the Lusitania, Dad recalls, whose sinking in 1915 helped catapult the U. S. into the first World War.

The tourists arrived in New York on March 6. Tommy, living in Cambridge at the time, skipped home for one day, then started for Paso Robles, California, to prepare for the 1914 season.

Quite a trip for a youngster of 18, who weighed only 154 at the time. Think he'd be worn to a frazzle by the time he arrived at the White Sox camp But no.

"Never felt better in my life," said Tom, "and had a great season."

To this day Tommy Daly is the only man who ever hit a home run before the King of England. And one of the few who could forecast trouble with the Japs.

BRAVES GET RAW DEAL IN OPENER

Never let it be said that the makers of the National League schedule went out of their way to be particularly nice to our Gaffney St. Braves.

The official schedule released for today appears perfectly fair on the surface. The Braves, like every other team, have 12 Saturdays and 12 Sundays plus three holidays at home—Decoration Day, June 17 and Labor Day.

This is the same break all others received.

Yet, there is one thing hard to explain—why have the Braves opened at Philadelphia for the last three years? Why must the Braves invariably draw the Phillies for an opener?

It would seem only fair to swing the opening dates among Eastern clubs much the same as is done in the American League. This would give the Braves a shot at Philadelphia once every three years and allow the Giants and Dodgers to fill in on the other two years.

Opening day is one of the big money making dates in major league baseball everywhere but in Philadelphia.

Harvard Meets Tiger Giants

Harvard's starting five against the Princeton basketball team in Jungletown tonight presents a tall problem to the Tigers. They will be facing a quintet taller on the average by three inches than the one which dropped a two-point verdict to the Tigers Feb. 14.

With Hugh Hyde, six-four, at one forward, and "Bunks" Burditt, six-three, at center, contributing the most height, the starting Crimson team averages better than six-two, the tallest in recent years.

The Harvard freshman hockey team is expected to whip Hebron Academy tonight at the Boston Skating Club at 5:30, for its 13th win of the year. Since the game was not on the regular schedule, experts have hazarded the guess that the contest was added to avoid the mental hazard that the "jinx" number would present in the climax game with Yale a week from tomorrow.

Varsity ice coach Johnny Chase has excellent reasons for wanting to upset Yale tomorrow night at the Arena. Chase played on three Harvard teams from 1926-28 that lost not one of six games to the Elis. Last year, with Clark Hodder at the helm, the Crimson dropped 8-2 decisions twice to the Blues.

Second in the Eastern Intercollegiate Swim League, Princeton is heavily favored to top Hal Ulen's mermen tomorrow night at the Harvard Indoor Athletic Building.

Old Timer Skiers Duel On Cannon Mountain

By "TAP" GOODENOUGH

Youth will be swerved! In the 12th annual Ski Club Hochgeberge races on Cannon mountain, Franconia Notch, N. H., tomorrow and Sunday, there will be a championship class for veteran skiers 35 years old and more. This event will see such gallant oldtimers as Alec Bright, Rock Stephens, Al Sise, and others pointing their ski tips straight down the steep Taft Trail in the thrill of competition.

The downhill team race will start tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, with the veterans' and women's downhill following in order. The slalom team race will be flagged Sunday at 11 a. m. the veterans' and women's slalom again following suit.

SPIRIT OF TEAMWORK

The Hochgeberge team race was first contested in March, 1931, as a copy of the FIS team races of Europe, in which event each country sent its ace skiers to carry the prestige of their native land on their skis. The most important feature was the team effort, and instead of "going all out," each man ran a conservative race which would bring him in near the top and so help gain for his team a high rating. Members of the team aid each other by studying bumps, icy spots, and other tricky parts of the trails' terrain, thus contributing to the success of their team as a unit. In such races, teamwork, instead of individual performances, is stressed. And the spirit of teamwork is the keynote of our country in these times.

The race for women will be an individual race this year and not a team race as in past seasons. Individual men competitors who are not able to get an adequate team representation have been accepted as entries in an individual capacity, if the team entries are so few in number as to permit the handling of additional competitors.

There is plenty of snow on the Taft Trail at this writing, and one of the best races in the history of the club is anticipated. The course will be well patrolled, but spectators are urged to co-operate by not leaving footprints on the trail and keeping out of the way of racers.

• • •

Ski competitions galore are carded for this week-end . . . Colgate and Dartmouth will battle it out in a dual meet with four-event teams at Hanover, N. H. . . . The Vermont Interscholastic ski meet will take place at Mount Mansfield, Stowe, Vt. . . . Another interscholastic meet, the Berkshire event, is set for Mount Greylock at Pittsfield.

• • •

Jumpers will also hold sway this week-end in the Northern New England tournament, sanctioned by the Pineland Ski and Outing Club, at Andover, Me. . . . Sunday finds the Massachusetts downhill championship scheduled for the Thunderbolt Trail at Adams, while the Vermont state slalom championships, under auspices of the Otter Ski Club, will be held at Pico Peak, Rutland, Vt.

Harvard A. A. Loses $17,000

Harvard sport auditors used $43,000 worth of red ink less last year than they had expected to use, Athletic Director Bill Bingham's annual report revealed today in the Harvard Alumni Bulletin.

Whereas the operating deficit of the H. A. A. for the past academic year was expected to be $60,000, the actual loss was $17,100, Bingham stated. Even $17000 seems an insignificant figure compared with the record total endowment of $421,317 for sports reached last year.

The report also showed that Harvard teams compiled a ledger of 176 wins, 161 loses and 13 ties. Some 1270 undergrads went out for fall, winter and spring sports, and 57 per cent of the House members eligible (1202) played on 157 teams in the intramural system.

Crippled Youth Named Harvard's 'Athlete of Year'

A story of a crippled youth who went to college, overcame the handicap of a paralyzed arm and went on to become one of the finest squash racquet players in Harvard history was told today in the Harvard Alumni Bulletin by Harvard's athletic director, Bill Bingham.

Enshrining forever this heroic tale in Harvard annals, Mr. Bingham chose the lad for the athletic hero of the year 1940-41, a custom which he has repeated every year in his annual report on Harvard athletics.

"One victory deserves special praise. The individual concerned is Eugene Nickerson, '41, of Oyster Bay, N. Y. Five years ago he suffered an attack of infantile paralysis which made his right arm practically useless. During his freshman and sophomore years this arm was supported by a brace.

"He learned to play squash racquets with his left hand, and by his junior year he was the 13th best squash player in Harvard College. The coach encouraged him to develop further the muscles in his left arm, and by February of last year he was the No. 1 player on the Harvard varsity squash racquets team.

"Our contest with Yale includes nine matches, and after the eighth match the score was Yale 4, Harvard 4. Nickerson then went into the court to play against the No. 1 player of Yale. The Yale player won the first game, and then Nickerson proceeded to win the next three, and won the match to give us a 5-4 victory over Yale."

Tabor in Left Field Insures Sox Punch

By HERB FINNEGAN

SARASOTA, Fla., Feb. 27—Jim Tabor took his five cuts in batting practice this morning, fielded a few at third base and shifted to left field. Yes, Rawhide Jim is going to move out to left field for the Red Sox this year if he can master the assignment in a few weeks.

There is no reason why he can't. In our book, any infielder not only can play the outfield, but will find it a vacation out there. That is, if he can throw. And everybody knows Tabor can throw. Not too accurately, perhaps, but with far more effectiveness from left field than from third base.

Certainly, if Hank Greenberg could shift from first base to left field overnight, Tabor should have no difficulty. Clumsy as Jim appears at times, he's a velvet infielder compared to Hankus.

Tabe himself is enthused over the shift.

"Should have been out there years ago," he commented.

CRONIN SCOFFED AT IDEA

Tabe never would become a Joe Dugan at third if he tried 10 more years, and knew it himself. At times he appeared as if he had a board in his back as he went down for a low one. And his throwing, though improved of late, never would remind one of Jimmy Collins or Pie Traynor.

In fact, so simple a thing as the double-play throw from third to second was named by Tabe three years ago as his most difficult play. And that should be the simplest one in the book.

With all this in mind we asked Cronin several years back why he didn't play Tabe in the outfield. The kid seemed like a natural for the garden. He had plenty of power, speed to burn and all kinds of aggressiveness. He was worrying about his throwing and was awkward on ground balls. There would be no such worries in the outfield.

"He can't even catch a foul fly," scoffed the Sox manager.

Well, a fellow can learn to do that while he's playing third base.

PLAYED BETTER IN FIELD

There's such a thing as pregame practice. There's such a thing as shagging flies after the game. McGraw used to have his ballplayers report every morning at 10 o'clock during the season practicing that and the other thing.

Well, three years later Mr. Tabor is shifted to the outfield. We're glad for the kid's sake. No longer will he have to worry about his throwing. His arm is strong, and his throws won't have to be so accurate as they were in the infield. With that worry gone, he should add 15 points to his batting.

Remember how Greenberg blasted the ball in 1940, the year he moved to the outfield. Batted 340, had 150 RBI and made 41 home runs. Voted the most valuable player in the league.

Tabe's base-running, already high grade, is bound to improve, too, because he'll be dying of boredom in the outfield and will be cutting loose when he gets on those base paths. He had 14 stolen bases last year. He'll probably double that total this year.

Who'll play third base? Why none other than Manager Joe Cronin, of course, but it wasn't entirely a selfish motive that prompted Cronin to shift Tabe. The batting slack, caused by the absence of Ted Williams, will have to be taken up and it wouldn't be with Pete Fox or Johnny Welaj in left. The shift of Tabor assures the Sox of strong hitters at both third base and left field, as they had last year.

Cronin himself is in excellent trim. After six weeks of golf and a series of salt baths, he's down to 190 pounds, and looks the picture of health. He needs only to shed three more pounds to be down to playing weight. After some 16 years of major league shortstopping, third base should seem like an Old Man's Home to him. He should field much better there than he did at shortstop. Certainly he won't be so busy.

• • •

Now the only problem remaining is what to do about Jimmy Foxx, who reported this morning, with the declaration that he is still the club's first baseman, Ulysses Lupien notwithstanding.

• • •

Foxx has agreed to terms and Holdout Frankie Fytlak has signed. He'll be in tonight or tomorrow morning, but Pitcher Oscar Judd experienced passport trouble in Ontario and won't be here until Monday . . . Heber Dick Newsome and Emerson Dickman also were in uniform today . . .

Boss Joins Army, Hack Wilson, Club Minus Sponsor

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 27 (AP)—Peter B. Mitchell, owner of the Topeka baseball club of the Western Ass'n, has volunteered for army service and will not operate the club this season, he said in a letter received today by William (Hack) Wilson, Owl manager.

Mitchell, who was at his Fallbrook, Cal., home, gave Wilson his release and said some 15 other players would be declared free agents unless they were sent contracts by March 1. Unless Topeka interests keep the franchise alive, baseball law requires that it be turned over to the league.

DRAFT BOARD GIVES TED OK TO HEAD FOR SOX CAMP

By HERB FINNEGAN

SARASOTA, Fla., Feb. 27—Ted Williams may start the 1942 campaign with the Red Sox after all.

The 1941 A. L. batting champion (.406) phoned Sox General Manager Eddie Collins from Minneapolis today, agreed to terms and will leave for this Sarasota camp Sunday or Monday. Collins relayed the information southward.

Williams was not expected to report here. He is in class 1-A of the draft and was due to be called for service as far back as Feb. 15.

But he hasn't been called, and the Minneapolis draft board said it didn't know when he would be and gave him permission to join his mates here.

READY IF CALLED

"I'm ready and waiting to go," Ted told Collins. "And as soon as the board says so I'll pack up and return. I've been all at sea of late, not knowing which way to turn. So I went to the board myself and asked them what to do.

"One thing I want to get straightened out, and that is I never have asked for a deferred classification, and am not asking one now. When I was reclassified from 3-A to 1-A I said nothing and was ready to go the minute they wanted me and I'm still ready."

Williams will arrive here Tuesday or Wednesday, and there is no telling how long he'll stay with the club. It may be two days, it may conceivably be two months.

PESKY HAS HIGH NUMBER

Shortstop Johnny Pesky, for example, is in class 1-A in his native Portland, Ore., yet has a high number and has been told that he may not be called before September.

Williams' case differs from that of Emerson Dickman in that the latter already has enlisted in the Navy. He's working out here with the permission of the Navy authorities who told him they wouldn't need him for another 15 days.

Incidentally, while this is being written, Jim Tabor is working out in left field, preparing to take over Williams' duties in that position. He'll continue to practice there as well as at third base, Joe Cronin said.

Cleveland Signs Most Valuable Rookie

CLEVELAND, Feb. 27 (AP)—Overlooking no bets in lining up a success for the retired Hal Trosky at first base, the Cleveland Indians today purchased the contract of Larry Barton from their Wilkesbarre (Pa.) farm. The left-handed hitter will report at once to the Tribe's Clearwater, Fla., training camp.

Barton, 29, was a member of the St. Louis Cardinals' "chain gang" before Wilkesbarre bought him from Columbus (O.) last year. He hit only .251 in 57 games for Columbus in 1940, but zoomed to .315 with the Pennsylvania club last season and was voted the Eastern League's most valuable player.

Perseverance Pays Golden Glove Champ

Perseverance paid Manuel Baptiste, Golden Glove champion in the 175 pound class, yesterday.

Three weeks ago, Manuel tried to enlist in the U. S. Navy but was rejected after failing to pass the rigid eye test. Undaunted he left the recruiting office, fought in two bouts and received enough to buy glasses which corrected his defective vision.

Yesterday he was accepted.

Billy Myers Quits Diamond for R. R.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 27 (AP)—Billy Myers, who quit baseball this week rather than take a salary cut from the Chicago Cubs, is working as an extra fireman in the Pennsylvania Railroad's Enola yards, railroad officials said today.

Myers, former Cincinnati Reds star, was reported to have received $12,000 last year playing with Milwaukee in the American Ass'n, where he was farmed by the Cubs. His new job pays from $6.88 to $8.34 a day. His home is in nearby West Fairview.

• • •

MIAMI, Fla.—The infield which Manager Mel Ott of the New York Giants starts against the Dodgers in the two-game exhibition series opening tomorrow at Havana likely will be the inner defense he will bank on for many weeks, if not past the start of the regular season.

The versatile combination includes slugging Johnny Mize at first base, youthful Connie Ryan at second, veteran Dick Bartell at short, and polished Bill Werber at third.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Bobby Blattner, slated to become the St. Louis Cardinals' No. 1 infield reserve, believes in starting early to live up to advance notices.

The St. Louis boy whose smooth fielding reminds Pres. Sam Breadon of Napoleon Lajoie—which is quite a lot of reminding—began working out with the batterymen ahead of the full squad, due today.

• • •

EL CENTRO, Cal.—The Pittsburgh Pirates believe they have the best all-around catching duo in the National League this season in Al Lopez and Babe Phelps.

The Bucs cured most of their backstopping ills by buying Lopez from Boston two years ago. They went that one better by acquiring Phelps from Brooklyn this winter.

ORLANDO, Fla.—Mickey Vernon, 3-A in selective service and A-1 choice for the Washington Senators' first base assignment, reported today.

HAVANA—The Brooklyn Dodgers now have seven players on the ailing list. Shortstop Alex Kampouris injured a finger in the first workout. Pitcher Newt Kimbell twisted a leg a couple of days later. Nov Pitchers Bob Chipman, Emile Lochbaum and Les Werbet have developed charley horses. Southpaw Larry French is suffering from a heavy cold and Don Padgett has a boil which had to be lanced.

• • •

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. — For the first time in his career as manager of the New York Yankees, Joe McCarthy has been forced to abandon plans for forenoon workouts. The reason—A heavy morning dew. Beginning today, the Yanks will hold all their spring drills in the afternoon in order to escape the dampness.

• • •

CLEARWATER, Fla.—The Cleveland Indians' batting practice is featuring the efforts of four rookies: Henry Edwards, late of the Three-Eye League; Oris Hockett, Edwards' rival for the extra fielding job; Les Fleming, who appears to have the inside track for first base, and Catcher Otto Denning.

LAKELAND, Fla.—Charley Gehringer is listed by the Detroit Tigers as a coach, but don't count him wholly out of active competition.

The 38-year-olds "mechanical man" second baseman is looking spry in workouts, and his restoration to the active list would be a mere formality if Jimmy Bloodworth or Dutch Meyer failed to come through at the keystone sack.

• • •

PHILADELPHIA—Seven pitchers, Catcher BillPeterman, President Gerry Nugent and Coaches Bill Killefer and Chuck Klein leave today to open the spring training camp of the Philadelphia Phils in Miami, Fla.

Alsab Totes 126 Burden In Flamingo

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 27 (AP)—Seventeen leading American 3-year-olds, headed by the 1941 champion, Alsab were listed today to carry their owners' hopes tomorrow in the $25,000 Flamingo Stakes, second-biggest money race of the winter and a preview of the Kentucky Derby.

Albert Sabath arranged for R. L. Vedder, Alsab's jockey when he became known as a wonder horse, to ride the colt in the Flamingo in the hope he could overcome the effects of two disappointing starts this year.

ALSAB TOPWEIGHT

Alsab went in at 126 pounds, against 122 for his chief juvenile rival, B. F. Whitaker's Requested, and 120 for Mrs. Alice F. Sherman's American Wolf, Mrs. Ralph McIlvain's Bright Willie, and Sidney S. Zeil's Incoming.

Other entries, with their weights: Sweep Swinger, 120; Alohort, First Fiddle, Florizan Beau, Grey Wind, More Than Few, Sir War, and Wood Robin, 118; Equinox, Redthorn and Rodney, 116, and To Boot 114.

To make Flamingo Day one of Hialeah's greatest, the owners entered in a secondary $2500 race for 4-year-olds and up most of the big names being talked of in connection with next Saturday's $50,000 Added Widener Cup race.

CAP STARS GET TEST

Charles S. Howard entered two other great California horses, Nioland and Porter's Cap.

SCHOOLBOY ICE STARS MEET IN PLAYOFF

The Eastern Massachusetts and the Bay State interscholastic All-Star sextets clash this evening at the Boston Garden to play off the 3-to-3 deadlock of the holiday.

The clash is a preliminary to the Boston Olympics—Baltimore Orioles Eastern Amateur Hockey League game.

The schoolboys will play two periods before the "big boys" engage for their first period. The Stars will then sandwich their third and final period between the first and second Olympic session.

The largest schoolboy hockey gathering of the season, a throng of well over 4000, jammed the Arena for the first meeting of these annual foes.

RETAINS STARTING LINEUP

The Easterns took command early in the tilt but the Bay Staters came from behind on three occasions to knot the count. The climax was reached when Waltham's Charlie Butler tied the score with but 1:10th of a second to play in the overtime period.

Coach Walter Brinn, of Waltham, will start the same Bay State team that showed to such advantage earlier this week. Brinn will use the first line of Butler, who scored twice in the first meeting, Joe Kraatz, B. C. High, and Ed Thomas, another Watch City puck carrier.

HUDSON PAIR MISSING

Ralph Bassey, sensational Walpole 16-year-older, who scored the first Bay State goal on Monday, and Walter Delorey of Watertown, will be on the defense.

Meanwhile, Frank Dinan, Wakefield mentor and master mind of the Easterns, will counter with his same holiday starting lineup: Vidito, Wakefield, in goal; Charlie MacDonald, Wakefield, and Bob Davidson, Dedham, at defense; Joe Czarnota, Earle Richardson and Bill Cullen, all of Wakefield on the first line.

Ferris Predicts 10 New Records in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP)—The National A. A. U. track and field championships in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night will produce exactly 10 new records, in the opinion of Secretary Dan Ferris.

Ferris believes world marks will be tied or broken in the mile run, 60-yard dash, 60-yard high hurdles, three-mile run, sprint medley relay and two-mile relay, while championship figures will be eclipsed in the 600, the 1000, the mile relay and pole vault.

No. 43 Displaces No. 13 as Jinx

That ole debbil, number 13, isn't the jinx to watch for on the basketball court or the football field. Number 43 presents real danger, says Dr. Arlie V. Bock, Harvard hygiene professor, in his annual report.

If figures don't lie, the average player can expect to participate in 42 practice sessions or games in any sport without suffering injury. Dr. Bock drew this conclusion from assessing 20,964 treatments recorded at Harvard's Dillon Field House and Indoor Athletis Building last year.

This figure, which represents a new record in the care of Harvard athletes, may seem frightening, especially since injuries in organized sport totaled 438 compared with 376 in 1939-40, but Dr. Bock calls it a "remarkable achievement."

Berg Appeal to Japs Historic Air Effort

By BOB CONSIDINE

Probably the most remarkable broadcast ever made by an athlete was short waved from San Francisco the other night, by transcription. It was a direct appeal to the Japanese people by Moe Berg, late of the Red Sox. It was spoken in Japanese.

Apparently arranged for by what Washington calls "The Donovan Office," it was an excellent bit of propagandizing. It jabbed the Japs in a sensitive spot. We trust it is still lawful to listen to the radio in Japan.

Berg made two trips to Japan with barnstorming baseball teams, but entered much more into the life of Japan than did his lobby-sitting, sight-seeing colleagues.

MOE POPULAR IN JAPAN

He lived as the Japanese did, threw his great gifts for language into the almost impossible job of mastering the Japanese tongue, and brought a howl from the other ball players by appearing once in full Japanese regalia to bid bon voyage to several of the boys who were sailing for other ports. He was enormously popular.

The other night he reminded what he hoped were his listeners of all these things. He spoke the names of the cultured Japanese baseball enthusiasts who had welcomed the American teams.

He reminded them of Babe Ruth. He recalled certain exciting games in Tokyo and elsewhere. He deplored the way that the Japanese people had been led into a devastating war by their military madmen.

YOU CANNOT WIN

"We assumed you were civilized even in battle. We thought we saw that when we taught you our national game and watched you play it. We thought that you would play that game, and that you would fight, according to the rules.

"But you have outraged us and every other nation in the world with the exception of two—two that are tainted with blood, Germany and Italy. They welcome you as friends. But your temporary victories will bring only misery.

"You cannot win this war. We and the other republics of America are unified. We are united. Your leaders have betrayed you. Do not forget: After this war the nations which have broken the rules will have to prove their right to be partners among the civilized. We tried to remain your friends.

PLEA FOR FRIENDSHIP

"When I tell you that you cannot win this war, I am speaking to you as a friend of the Japanese people. Take the reins now! Your war lords are not telling you the truth. The people of the United States and the people of Japan can be friends, as they were in the past. It is up to you!"

So spoke an American ballplayer, with feeling and sincerity. If he had an audience there in Japan, men and women there must have been touched more deeply than any high-blown language from a statesman could have touched them.

OLYMPICS PLAY BALTIMORE

The Baltimore Orioles which have been able to win but one game from the Olympics in eight starts this year, will be making their last appearance of the season here in the Hub tonight and tomorrow night when they clash with the Pics in Eastern Amateur League contests.

Junnie Allen

The Baltimore team's only win against the locals came in Maryland early in the campaign. Although the O's enjoyed a wide margin in victories, they were extended in all games to win by either one goal or were forced into an overtime period.

Coach Hago Harrington will start his new line of Paul Guibord, Ray Chaisson nad Al Dumond. His first replacement will be that of Danny Sullivan, Gerry Desrosiers and Junnie Allen.

For his third line, he is expected to use Johnnie Fitzgerald at center and Eddie Barry and Bill Hagblom at wings. He will alternate Barry at both wing and defense.

Ty Anderson, who played 70 minutes in Washington Friday night and the same length of time in Baltimore Sunday, and 68 minutes of Monday's overtime game with Atlantic City here at the Garden, will be back at his left defense post, teaming with Bob Mee.

Cy Beigler is Harrington's third defenseman who will alternate with Mee, as Ty is again expected to play most of the game.

Both Olympic games are scheduled for 8:45 because of the All-Star schoolboy games, which get under way at 7:15.

Colby Six Opens Battle for Title

Colby's White Mules will begin their last ditch battle for championship honors and Northeastern Huskies will be flailing for second place when the two teams meet in the feature game of a New England Intercollegiate Hockey League twin bill tonight at the Arena. Bowdoin vs. M. I. T. completes the program.

Colby, N. U. and Bowdoin will again be on hand for tomorrow afternoon, Mules will clash with Boston College, winner of seven straight league games, while Northeastern tackles Bowdoin in the league windup.

Colby, which has won eight of nine games this year (the only loss was a 5-4 overtime defeat at the hands of BC last month at Waterville) must win tonight to remain in the championship running.

An N. U. victory, besides enhancing the Huskies' chances of finishing in a second place tie with Colby, will give BC its third straight championship, its fourth in six years, without even lifting a stick.

A subsequent BC conquest of Colby—the Eagles are favored to repeat their Waterville triumph—and a Northeastern conquest of Bowdoin—the Huskies should have little trouble here—will permit the Huntington ave. collegians to finish higher in the standing than they have finished in six years of campaigning.

N. E. A. A. U. TITLE HOCKEY ENTERS SECOND ROUND

The second round of competition in the New England A. A. U. hockey tourney being staged at the Garden this weekend will roll into action at the North depot this afternoon with two games scheduled.

The first attraction will bring together the Hingham Cove A. C. and the Revere Rangers. The Dover (N. H.) Bluejays fly at the Lexington Pla-Mors in the second tilt.

In yesterday's opening round the Tufts College Independents successfully eliminated the East Boston Town Club; the South Boston All-Stars rallied behind the high scoring of Frank Morano and Al Boresh to whip the Swampscott Gulls and the Gloucester H. C. assured itself of a slot in the playoffs by pummelling the Powers A. C. of East Boston.

The Hingham Covers are one of the heavy favorites to annex the 14-year-old title vacated by the Berlin, N. H., A. C. which dropped from the N. E. A. A. U. earlier this year.

The South Shorers, along with the Lexington Pla-Mors, are the choices to reach the finals to be played on Monday evening.

Rangers Increase Lead But Lose Heller

By the Associated Press

New York's Rangers stretched their lead in the National Hockey League last night, the Detroit Red Wings ended a four-game winning streak and the Chicago Black Hawks tightened their grip on fourth place, but the Montreal Canadiens continued doing business at their same stand—in the cellar.

The Rangers won their third straight game and boosted their margin to six points by stopping the Red Wings, 7-4, first reverse in four outings for Detroit.

At the same time, the Black Hawks tripped Montreal, 5-4, leaving the Canadiens one point behind Brooklyn as they prepare for the week-end home-and-home series with the sixth-place Americans which will go a long way toward deciding who enters the Stanley Cup playoffs as the sixth club.

The New York victory cost the Rangers the services of Defenseman Ott Heller for possibly one or more of the remaining games.

Heller was taken to a hospital with a two-inch gash in his hip.

HEBERT-PEPPI RETURN BOUT LOOMS IN FINAL

A possible return bout between Joe Hebert, Lowell, and Tony Peppi, Boston, looms in the 112-pound class of the finals of the Diamond Belt tourney that takes place at the Boston Arena next Monday night.

When these two mitt welders met in the finals of the All-America Finals in January there was a difference of opinion among the fans as to the rightful possessor of the title. Barring upsets, the two should meet in the finals of Monday night's show and decide once and for all the rightful holder of the 112-pound N. E. title.

The card for the Diamond Ring grand finals will consist of 24 bouts, two semi-finals and a final in eah of the eight classes at championship weights, flyweights to heavyweights.

Monday night's winners in all classes will automatically qualify for the New England A. A. U. championships, scheduled for Boston Garden on March 23. There will also be two other tryouts for the New Englands, under sponsorship of the Irish American A. A., at the Arena on March 9 and 16, for those boys who do not win finals next week.

Only the New England winners on March 23 will be eligible to represent this section in the Nationals at the Garden in April.

Irish to Adopt 'T' Formation This Season

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 27 (AP)—The famed backfield shift which Knute Rockne developed while an undergraduate at the University of Notre Dame and improved later as coach will be scrapped by the Irish football team this spring.

Coach Frank Leahy disclosed today he would use the "T" formation when his proteges begin spring practice March 2 because he believes his speedy backs can operate more effectively when running from that lineup.

The shift Rockne developed in 1912 and 1913 as a player was improved shortly after the first World War by Rockne the coach. The quarterback squatted a few feet directly behind the center, and the halfbacks and fullback stood on a line behind the quarterback.

The halfbacks and the fullback then would shift either to the right or left, with the quarterback carrying the ball or handing it to one of the other backs as they moved swiftly around him.

Under the new system, the quarterback will handle the ball on every play, but there will be no shift in the old sense of the word. The effect probably will be more delayed line bucks and criss-crosses with a degree of deception.

Leahy said Angelo Bertelli sensational passing left halfback of the 1941 season, would be moved to quarterback.

Dippy Evans, last year's fullback, will be played at left halfback and Creighton (Jerry) Cowhig of Boston, Mass., a 213-pound freshman will have first call at fullback. The right halfback position has not been filled, Leahy said.

Love and Marriage

Pity Always Poor Substitute For True Love, Affection

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I'M 20 YEARS OLD and a high school graduate. I took a business course and have a pretty good job.

A short time ago I was asked, with a group of other girls to go to a certain Army post, to dance with the soldiers. There I met a young man who was born in this country but whose family came from Middle Europe. He seemed so terribly anxious to be regarded as a loyal American that I felt sorry for him. There isn't space enough to relate his family history, but between his family and his feelings of loyalty to this country he's had a pretty tough time of it.

It was just feeling sorry for him that made me drift into this engagement and promise to be his wife. But the truth is I don't love him and never can love him. We have an entirely different background. My family are professional people and I hope to make something of myself too.

On the other hand, my fiance seems to lack ambition. He did not finish high school and speaks pretty poor English. Several times I have suggested to him that he brush up on his grammar by studying books on the subject. This would make him more contented, as he seems to feel his disadvantages in comparison with other young men.

I hate to add to his troubles by breaking our engagement. Yet, at the same time, I'm convinced that if we were married I could not make him happy any more than he could make me happy. His ideas that women are inferior and should have no ambition outside the home make me angry—and yet I'msorry for him. With it all, he has a good deal of attraction for me, even though we are miles apart in our way of looking at things.

"FRANCES."

While we have been assured that "pity is akin to love," it's mighty poor substitute for the real article and wears thin as the years move on. A marriage with nothing but pity to recommend it is doomed from the beginning.

Your fiance lacks ambition. While I have sympathy with a man in his circumstances, he should be able to hold up his head and live down that demoralizing feeling of inferiority. He was born in this country; he is an American citizen and is in the United States Army. Scores of men with exactly the same background as this young man have risen high on the honor roll of this country.

The keynote of a happy marriage is congeniality. For a woman of your background, marriage to this man would be an unhappy mistake. I hope for his sake as well as your own that you will not go on with this engagement.

For the last two years I have been using herbs in cooking. I am constantly surprised at the number of people who pronounce "herbs" the way it is spelled—that is, pronouncing the H. I had always been taught to pronounce it as if it were spelled erb. Which is correct? H. E. S.

Either pronunciation is correct.

Where Does Axis Park Its Subs?

—By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER—

Distributed by International News Service

IT BEGINS to look like the Axis has a submarine garage in the Atlantic.

I'M REPEATING what I said about aliens in the West Indies. "A man doesn't own his house if another man owns the front doorsteps."

BUT I KNOW we won't grab Martinique or anything else unless it has a strawberry on top.

I'M THANKFUL that President Roosevelt said we would soon take the offensive.

I KNOW that Mr. Roosevelt is holding off because of a chance to do business with Vichy.

BUT VICHY'S record is poor and we must remember the old proverb, "He who wrestles in the mud, shall become befouled, even though he fall uppermost."
